Apply At Branch Offices For Truck Registration

Truck owners throughout Oregon are asked to make application for all 1952 truck registrations at the secretary of state's branch offices or other issuing agencies rather than applying by mail to the main Salem office.

New fee schedules, which are now available at branch offices and other agencies, made the request necessary, according to Robert Gile, head of the motor vehicle department. Unnecessary delays and confusion will result if owners send applications by mail to the Salem office without first consulting the new schedules, Gile said. The new fees, he added, were established by the last legislative session.

All truck owners were also reminded to retain present license plates, as shortages of aluminum make it necessary to calibrate present plates by tabs.

Senators Don't Reflect Voters' Views--Morse

PORTLAND — (P) — Sen. Wayne Morse (R-Ore.) doubts that the majority of Republican senators represents the thinking or the will of the majority of Republican voters.

Defending his voting record in a speech at the Portland chamber of commerce, Morse said he would not trade it for that of anyone he knows.

Morse criticized an editorial which appeared in the Oregon voting record on 20 issues and indicating that his voting opposed party thinking.

"I don't accept Charlie Sprague's (the paper's publisher) presumption that I voted against party unity," he said.

It was then he said that votes by Republican senators did not reflect the will of Republican voters.

Morse branded his critics' talk of economy as "false economy." He said he was in favor of adopting the Hoover commission report for reorganization of the government. Some of his colleagues are not interested in having the report adopted in its entirety, he asserted.

About 30 percent of the report has been adopted, and if the rest of it were, the country would save between $4,000,000,000 and $7,000,000,000, he estimated.
