Animals Kept In Swank Zone Draw Jail Term
 VICTORIA, B. C. — (CP)—Spry, 74, year-old Robert Jackson, who drives both a horse and a Cadillac — he prefers the horse — has started serving a three-day jail sentence for keeping two horses, two goats, two calves and a pig on his property in the swank Rockland avenue district here.
 In city police court he elected to spend three days in jail rather than pay a $15 fine after pleading guilty to a charge of harboring animals, in violation of the city health by-law. His neighbors had also objected to the manure pile.
 Jackson immediately ordered his lawyers to start legal action against Magistrate H. C. Hall, City Prosecutor James Proudfoot, the city of Victoria and Police Chief John Blackstock for "illegal detention."
 The elderly equestrian arrived at the courthouse on horseback followed by a big, shaggy dog.
 Jackson was wearing jodhpurs, riding boots and a tartan shirt. When he decided to take the jail sentence, friends took his horse and dog home.

Charge Of Being Agnostic Denied By Mrs. Roosevelt
 PARIS — (AP) — Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt disclaims any intention of having expressed a disbelief in immortality or of being an agnostic.
 She made her statements in commenting on an article in Tidings, weekly newspaper for the Los Angeles Catholic archdiocese. Archbishop J. Francis A. McIntyre of Los Angeles challenged her fitness to head the United Nations commission on human rights. The diocesan newspaper said Mrs. Roosevelt "apparently does not acknowledge God."
 Mrs. Roosevelt's original remarks were made in a radio program. (CBS "This I Believe").
 She added, however, "I do believe exactly what I said on that broadcast. It was a short program."
 She added, however, "I do believe in immortality, but I haven't been able to decide exactly what form it might take. There are so many possibilities. For example, there is a question in my mind whether we will appear physically as we appear now. It seems unnecessary to try to decide the exact form that immortality will take. We won't be able to change it and we must accept it. And we must meet it with courage and do our best."

 Vernon K. Leonard, fire controlman third class, USNR, 547 S. Pine St., Roseburg, Ore., a member of the crew of the Navy destroyer USS McNair, DD679, left here today for the return down the Mississippi to the Gulf of Mexico.
 The ship is stationed at Pensacola, Fla., where she is an escort vessel for the aircraft carrier Monterey.
 The McNair arrived at New Orleans Friday and Leonard had the weekend to visit that historic old city.
Bride Of Three Weeks Robs Blind Husband
 EVANSTON, Ill. — (AP) — A bride of three weeks accused of embezzling $4,000 from her blind, war veteran husband in Phoenix, Ariz., was seized by police Saturday.
 The police said the woman, Mrs. Joan Brooks Larson, 24, told them she came to the Chicago area to "square" an alleged previous theft and that she still loves and wants to return to her husband.
 Huber Keish, chief of detectives, said she had only $249 in her possession, but had bought an automobile.
 Her husband, John Larson, 35, lost his sight in the battle for Japan in the South Pacific. He told police he married the 210-pound, five foot seven inch woman in Yuma, Ariz., Nov. 15 after a five day courtship. She was then singing in a church group.

Toil Aids More Nervous Women Than Bridge Play
 LOS ANGELES — (AP) — A California diagnostician is convinced that more nervous women are created over the bridge table than over the wash tub.
 The nervous woman of today is a product of the machine age and is frustrated and confused by its speed, competition and complexity, Dr. Earl O. G. Schmitt of San Jose, Calif., told the American Medical association here.
 He pictured her as "a scared and lonely individual in need of a friend" and requiring sympathy more than medical treatment. A good medicine, he said, is work.
 There are five kinds of nervous women, Dr. Schmitt said. These are:
 1. Those 65 or over.
 2. Women in the menopause.
 3. The young matron.
 4. The recently married woman whose husband may be in service.
 5. The "missed by marriage" women.
 A surprisingly large number of these women are "unhappy and worried about matters of sex," Dr. Schmitt said. This situation is made worse, he added, by the fact that many doctors neglect the subject or are incapable of giving useful advice about it.
Kinsey Report No Help
 The flood of current books and articles about sex are evidence of the wide uncertainty and confusion, he said. The much-discussed Kinsey report, though it may be well-intentioned, likely will not help the confused woman and may even have "a very damaging effect on the proper understanding of sex problems and on the dignity of sex in the lives of many otherwise sane-minded women."
 One cause of frustration, Dr. Schmitt said, is due to inability to keep up with some other person in doing work. Sometimes this other person is the husband who has a great capacity for work.

Outclassed, the woman becomes frustrated.
 What many of these women need, the diagnostician said, is a doctor to whom they can tell their entire story and be sure of getting a sympathetic hearing.
Work Good Medicine
 One drawback to this, he added, is that males, including doctors themselves, have much to learn about nervous women.
 Work is good medicine, he said. "I have a firm conviction that more nervous women are created over the bridge table than over the wash tub."
 These women should be encouraged to find something or someone on whom they can trust and believe. Many would do better if they returned to religion, he said.

Ailing Cobbler's Work Done By Competitors
 UPLAND, Calif. — (AP) — Remember that fairy tale about the little shoemaker who woke up to find all his work done by friendly elves? We, it happened here to Joe Horvath.
 Joe was busy at his cobbler's bench when he collapsed of a heart attack and had to be taken to a hospital. He left a large pile of shoes to be mended.
 When Joe's wife arrived at the shop the next morning she found all the shoes neatly repaired.
 Elves? Nope. A group of other cobblers led by Tax Cochran, a competitor who runs a shop down the street, had pitched in to help Joe out. And they plan to keep on working for Joe until he gets well.
