

Stanky Takes Over As Cards' Manager Myrtle Point Nips Reedsport Quintet

ST. LOUIS — (AP) — Edward Raymond Stanky steps gingerly into his new role as manager of the St. Louis Cardinals today confronted by a novel problem. Can he win a starting position on his own team?

It's definite, says the former New York Giants second baseman, that he will serve as a playing manager. However, the "ifs, buts and maybes" begin to pile up when he's asked where he will insert himself in the Redbird lineup.

With only a few short hours of experience as a manager (he signed a two-year contract with Owner Fred Saigh around supper time yesterday) Stanky says he isn't ready to make that decision yet. Or any others for that matter.

The deal that brought Stanky to the Cardinals to replace the ousted Marty Marion as manager has been kicked around for a few months now. Yet it took almost three hours of actual conference between Eddie and Saigh to agree to terms.

Saigh held out for a one-year term, two years at the maximum. Eddie originally wanted a three-year contract.

For giving up their peppery second baseman, the National league pennant winners received veteran pitcher Max Lanier and outfielder Chuck Dierin from the Cards.

As for the price tag Saigh placed on Stanky's services, it's anybody's guess. But the baseball men who say they know about such things place it at about $32,500 a year.

INDIANS PLAY

Roseburg high school will try to even the season's record at two and two Friday night when the Indians meet the Willamette basketball squad from Eugene. It will be Roseburg's third consecutive home game. No game is scheduled Saturday.

Belated reports from Reedsport caused by last week's storm, with the Braves opened the season with a 46-45 loss to Myrtle Point.

The Reedsport team turned into the arena for a two-man scoring duel between Al Cunningham of Myrtle Point and Duane Leggett of Reedsport. When all the points were counted, Cunningham had won with 29. Leggett was just a basket off with 27.

As in many another battle, the final score was determined at the free throw line. This was a bad department for Reedsport which connected only 11 of 26 free throws.

Reedsport had three chances to pull the game out of the fire in the final two and half minutes. The score was tied at 45-all with time to go before a free throw put the Braves ahead. But in every case, the Braves got over anxious and threw the ball away.
