

Lineman Of Year Honor Goes To Indians' McColl

NEW YORK — (AP) — Bill McColl, a big factor in Stanford's winning of the Pacific Coast conference football title and the Rose Bowl spot against Illinois, has been selected as the lineman of the year.

The 21-year-old 225-pound end from San Diego was the choice of 103 sportswriters and sportscasters participating in the Associated Press poll.

"The greatest lineman I have ever seen," said Coach Chuck Taylor of Stanford.

Big Bill, named on the Associated Press' All-America offensive team, received 17 votes for his feats of catching 42 passes, seven for touchdowns, and picking up 607 yards.

In San Diego, McColl was not available for comment, but his father, W. F. McColl, greeted his son's selection as "awfully nice and a signal tribute."

Two All-America tackles, Don Coleman of Michigan State and Jim Weatherall of Oklahoma, tied for second place with Bob Ward, Maryland's All-America guard, right at their heels.

Bob Carey, Michigan State's All-America offensive end, was next in line with seven votes. He was followed by Pat Canamella of Southern California and Les Richter of California, each with six votes.

Rounding out the first ten (with ties) were tackle Pug Pearman and guard Ted Daffer of Tennessee with five and four votes, respectively, and Ray Beck, Georgia Tech guard, and Chuck Boerio, Illinois linebacker.
