AMERICAN LEGION AUXILIARY HOLDS IMPORTANT MEETING

Umpqua Unit No. 16 met Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Kohlhaugen building on North Jackson street.

Mrs. Jean Stratton, District No. 10 President of American Legion Auxiliary, was introduced by Mrs. Edith Marshall, president. Mrs. Stratton was presented with a corsage of lavender chrysanthemums made by Mrs. Dora Ritzman.

This year was the best magazine campaign according to Mrs. Betty Moore, magazine chairman. She wishes to thank every one for making this possible.

The membership drive is progressing favorably and it is hoped to have the quota by Dec. 31 according to Mrs. Jennie Midland, membership chairman.

Mrs. Letha Garey, volunteer hospital worker, announces that the annual all-organizations dance will be held at the Veterans' hospital Monday evening, Dec. 17. This is the big dance of the year. All members are invited to attend.

Any or all members who can are urged to donate blood at the bloodmobile which will be in Roseburg Dec. 14.

Members of the unit contributed gifts to the Veterans' hospital. These gifts enable the patients with help of volunteer hospital workers, to make selections to send to their families which is one of the finest Christmas gifts for the veterans, according to Mrs. Nelle Ulrich, department hospital representative.

It was announced that all or any members who wished to help sack candy or make pop corn balls for the Christmas party meet at Mrs. Fred Wenger's, 614 Cobb street Sunday, Dec. 16.

The unit decided to ask everyone to bring sandwiches or cookies to the Christmas Party which will be held in the Legion hall in the Kohlhaugen building in Dec. 18.

In the recently published picture of Mrs. James Young and Mrs. Edith Marshall in Pilgrim costume, it has been announced that the two ladies modeled the costumes, which were worn by members of the east under the leadership of Miss Janet Morris, music director of the Veterans hospital. Miss Morris reports she greatly appreciates the work done by the American Legion auxiliary and the American Red Cross in making costumes for the program.

RICE VALLEY TO HOLD EXTENSION MEETING FRIDAY

The Rice Valley Extension meeting will be held at the hall Dec. 14, at 11 o'clock with a sack luncheon. The topic for the day will be "Holiday Decorations from Nature," by Mrs. Marie Rice and Edna Birchill.
