

Wildcats 2nd In Cage Poll; St. Johns 1st

NEW YORK — St. John's University of Brooklyn was rated the No. 1 college basketball team in the country today in the weekly Associated Press poll, but you can't convince the University of Kentucky.

Votes of the nation's sports writers and sportscasters were cast over the weekend. The weekly poll closed Monday afternoon, several hours before Kentucky and St. John's met at Lexington, Ky. The Kentucky Wildcats trounced the Redmen, 81 to 40.

One hundred and three ballots were received and St. John's got 36 first place votes to only 15 for Kentucky, which was ranked No. 1 a week ago. St. John's, which had won five straight games up until the Kentucky game, was No. 2 last week. This time, the Redmen received a total of 837 points, while Kentucky got 687.

The voting obviously was influenced by Kentucky's upset defeat at the hands of Minnesota last week, 61-57. St. John's had thumped Rhode Island state Saturday night, 82-62.

Illinois, a favorite for the Big Ten crown, St. Louis University and Kansas State remained the No. 3, 4 and 5 teams in that order — same as last week. Kansas State was bounced out of the undefeated class last week by San Francisco, 55-52. Last night, Kansas State trounced Hamline, 92-73.

St. Louis, another undefeated team when the voting closed, was beaten last night by Wisconsin, 55-54.

There were a few other switches in the top 10, but the only one to drop out was La Salle, which skidded from ninth place a week ago to 12th, Indiana, eleventh last week, moved up to the No. 6 place, on the strength of a thrilling 57-55 triumph over Wyoming.

Kansas, a 58-57 winner over Southern Methodist, moved up to No. 7. The University of Washington Huskies, won a pair from California last week, 60-52 and 65-43, but dropped from No. 6 to No. 8. North Carolina State, defeated by Texas Tech earlier in the week, 63-62, won over Eastern Kentucky Saturday 70-58, and moved up a notch to No. 9.

Seton Hall, No. 7 last Saturday won, over Iona (N.Y.) Saturday, 70-60, but dropped to the No. 10 spot this week.

Medford, Grants Pass Next On Indians' Hoop Schedule

It's Roseburg's turn to make the weekend trek to Medford and Grants Pass.

The Indian basketball squad will be the third team in two weeks to tackle Medford and Grants Pass in succession. The locals play at Medford Friday night and Grants Pass Saturday night.

Last night, the Tornado humiliated a proud Indian squad twice, 46-43, and 39-35. Grants Pass didn't play the Indians.

22 Shooters Win Turkeys

Completed tabulations of the Roseburg Rod and Gun club turkey shoot at the Winchester traps Sunday, show enough turkey winners to wipe out a flock.

In all, 22 men won turkeys in the alternating sunshine and showers. During one of the showers, a ten-man squad was organized to shoot for two turkeys. They fired from the clubhouse porch, but even with this rash of handicaps, Scott Goodman broke four of five targets to win a gobble. There were five ties for the second key with scores of one out of five. Harry Smith won the shoot off.

Other turkey winners were:

Larry Davis, Bert Lehnherr, Gene Edwards, Roy Medley, Jack Trusty, Carl Beach, Harrison Winston, Stan Short, Ivan Pickens, Floyd Ross, Dallas Bennett, Rodney Hague, "Dutch" Davis, George Roberts, Cecil Hague, Forrest Solomon, Dick DeBierne, Gus Cave, L. Wilson and Perry Thiele.

These games apparently tell little of what to expect. Both schools are lettermen shy and only fairly tall, so these factors should put the two schools on a comparatively even par with the Indians. It's interesting to note that the results of the games show exactly nothing in spite of the fact all three teams, the Indians, Cavemen and Tornado, have a common foe in Cottage Grove.

The Indians lost two very tight games to Cottage Grove, 30-26, and 33-32. Medford beat the Lions, 40-38, but Grants Pass lost to the same team, 37-34. This pattern is

Cavemen Split

Grants Pass has played just half as many games. The schedule started last weekend with two games which the Cavemen lost. They won the first against Shasta, 48-46, and then lost to Cottage Grove, 37-34.

Sanders Predicts An Illinois Victory

SAN FRANCISCO — Illinois and Stanford both clipped UCLA by 14 points. So football writers countered Bruin Coach Henry (Red) Sanders and asked for a Rose Bowl prediction.

Said Sanders: "Illinois is favored and that's justified."

Sanders long ago had predicted that Illinois would be in the Rose Bowl.

He said Illinois is "a solid team."

"They are very aggressive. That Boerio, the linebacker, hits you hard enough to loosen your teeth. Their halfbacks hit you three or four times while you're falling." Sanders' words of praise failed to daunt the spirits of Stanford Coach Chuck Taylor.

"No team scares us after California," Taylor said. Stanford lost its only game to the Bears 20-7. And Taylor naturally predicted a win for his Indians. He's been doing it all season and was right the first nine times.

These are some factors in favor of the visitors to counteract this fact, however. A bulk of the Warren squad recently played on the University of Oregon basketball team under the very same John Warren who now owns the hardware business and coaches them on the side. In Eugene, this team is expected to give the defending state champions a run for their money.

So far, however, the J. C.s sport a better record. They are undefeated in two Umpqua Valley AAU starts while the Warren squad has won one and lost one in Eugene. They won from the University of Oregon junior varsity and lost to the Oregon State Jayvees. One of the high points in the loss to Oregon State was a one-man performance by a shifty little guard named Ernie Baldini. He rang up 23 points for more than half his team's tallies in their 52-41 loss.

Grants Pass used 15 men in the game.

Glendale (12) (24) G Pass JV Smith (6) F (6) Pepper Miller (1) F (3) Mote Austin (6) C (5) Yoston Thomas (3) G (2) Hansen Ellis (2) G (0) Wright

Sups: For Glendale — Worley, Lassen, Clayton, Cox, Burke; for Grants Pass — Tscham, Marks (2), Phillips (2), Dixon, Barker, Luckus (2), Roth, Peebles, Eldon, Ody.

LETTER AWARDED

Mickey Coen, ex-Roseburg football star, was one of 25 Willamette university gridironers awarded letters for the 1951 football season.

LeRoy Elting Gets Mention In Grid Poll

LeRoy Elting, senior end on the 1951 Roseburg high school football team, received honorable mention in the second annual United Press Oregon High school all-star football team.

Selections for the all-star team are made by balloting every A-1 and A-2 football coach in the state. Honorable mention is received by any player who is named four or more times on ballots.

Elting was a two-year letterman, who played both offense and defense almost equally well. He received most of his plaudits for his glue-fingered pass catching. Coaches and scouts in district 5-A-1 are still talking about a brilliant catch in the 14-0 victory over Cottage Grove in which Elting snaked a 30-yard pass from the outstretched fingers of two Lion defenders who had him covered like a tent.

Cavemen Dominate

The Grants Pass Cavemen dominated the all star selections. The state champion, who defeated the Indians, 64-0, in Roseburg's darkest hour, placed three men on the first team. These three and Tom Crabtree of Marshfield all appeared against the Indians during the 1951 season. Crabtree, incidentally, was the only junior on the first team.

Coaches' selections: Ends — Ron Brown, Astoria, and Hank Hudspeth, Eugene; tackles — Cliff Brunneloe, Grants Pass, and Joel Sappenberg, Washington; guards — Bill Turner, Roosevelt and Bill Dugan, Grant; center — Joe Corder, Grants Pass; backs — Lou Loefland, Roosevelt, Al Leopold, Hillsboro, Tom Crabtree, Marshfield, Ron Knight, Grants Pass, Dick Pavlat, Astoria.

REALITY BOWLERS Lead City Loop

The first half of the 9-game City bowling league schedule was completed Monday night at the Roseburg alleys with Douglas County really sporting a five-point lead in the race for the championship.

The realtors have won 21 games and lost only 14 for a total 42 points. Gilkeson's station holds down the second berth for the opening half with 29 wins and 16 losses for 37 points.

Although both teams bowled some blistering games to close out the first half last night, it was only a so-so evening for both. The realtors rang up two team games over 1,000, but Youngs Bay took two points by winning a game and downing the most total pins. Gilkeson's station picked up only one point in spite of a hefty 2,942 series. Firms won the first two games and racked up a 2,946 series — the best of the night. Dick Harding of Firms helped the cause with the high individual game, 255, and series, 599.
