Nutrition Study Class Scheduled Here This Winter

A study of nutrition, community health problems, sanitation, and personal hygiene, including the effects of alcoholic drinks, stimulants and narcotics, will be conducted in Roseburg this winter under the direction of Mrs. Jennelle Moorhead, Eugene, assistant professor of health education of the states general extension division.

Viron A. Moore, acting dean of the extension division, points out that the course is of importance to every member of a community and that persons engaged in a number of fields of public service and leadership will find the course of benefit. Those who wish may earn three hours of college credit under the title HE 412 Health Education Workshop (p).

Mrs. Moorhead has attended many conferences and national meetings relative to health education and is a frequent contributor to health education publications. She has helped draft and secure the passage of public health and welfare legislation in Oregon including the 1937 Pre-Education law. She has been state president of the Parent-Teacher organization, the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, and has been a member of the State Board of Health.

The class will hold ten weekly meetings beginning Monday, Jan. 7, in the Roseburg junior high library, from 7 to 9:45 p.m. Fee for the course is $18. Anyone wishing further information may call the office of County School Superintendent Kenneth Barneburg.

Twins Born To Idaho's Parents Of Triplets

COUER D'ALENE, Idaho — (AP) Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McEachran, who are the parents of Kootenai county's only triplets—all girls—became the parents of twin boys Wednesday.

Each of the twins weighed about five and a half pounds. The triplets were two last March.

LA BANKHEAD DOES A PANTOMINE — Actress Tallulah Bankhead makes no attempt to mask her feelings as she approaches her former secretary-maid, Mrs. Eyleen Ramsay Cronin, 59, (left), in a New York City court corridor. Mrs. Cronin's lawyer, defending her on charges of hiking checks of her actress employer, charged that his client paid for "marijuana cigarettes, cocaine, booze and sex" for Miss Bankhead. QUIZ RINGS WEDDING BELLS — Cpl. Martin Diamond, 22-year-old wounded Korean war veteran, grins happily at his bride-to-be, Rita Spolin, as they hold the $11,840 radio quiz prize check that will make their marriage possible. Diamond, a Brooklyn, N. Y. boy who suffered leg wounds during 14-month service in Korea, took the prize in the "Break The Bank" program broadcast from New York, and immediately made plans for the upcoming wedding that hitherto had been postponed due to lack of funds. By HAZEL S MARSH
 Mrs. Edith Gregg and son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Louie McDaniel and Beatrice Mae of Wallace, Ida., left Sunday for Payette, Ida., after visiting at the homes of Mrs. Gregg's sisters, Mrs. Lee Pillion and Mrs. Ben Jacoby, during the past week. The visitors will spend the Christmas holiday with Mrs. Gregg's other sisters and families. Mrs. Evelyn Belyoir and Mrs. Bessie Kolford of Payette.

Mr. A. L. Oliver, who has been spending the past two months with his daughters and families in Idaho, came with the group and will make an indefinite visit in the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Jacoby. Among valley folk greeting the Idaho visitors were: Mr. and Mrs. Perley Oar, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Boling and Mr. and Mrs. Forbes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O'Neill, Daniel, Don, Rex and Evelyn were dinner guests Sunday at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. George Mazon and sons, honoring the latter's birthday.

A Christmas program was given on Friday evening at the school house in connection with the regular PTA meeting. Two songs were given by the upper grade girls, members of the Sunday school class taught by Mrs. John Mathis who directed their singing and accompanied them.

Other numbers included a greeting, "Merry Christmas and My Dolly" by 1st and 2nd graders; recitation, "What Grandpa Says" by Michael Robinson; choral readings, "When Christmas Comes" by the 1st and 2nd graders and "Jingle Bells" by Sharon Collins; song, "Silent Night" by 5th and 6th graders; recitation, "When Pa Puts Up the Tree" by Edwin Meredith; playlet, "Arithmetic Class" by 3rd and 4th graders with Michel Wetkins as teacher; song, "Away in a Manger" by 1st and second graders; playlet, "The Tale of a Christmas Carol" by 4th graders; piano solo, Jimmy Miller; recitation, Jonny Watkins; and a playlet planned and coached by the Good Citizenship club.

In connection with the election on the school consolidation measure, open house was held in the lower grades school building. Exhibits of the work of the children were on display and the patrons were invited to inspect the remodeling work done on the building during the summer vacation. Complying with state regulations, the plant was rearranged to care for the six lower grades in three rooms and the fourth room of the building was equipped as rest rooms and space for janitor's supplies. Included in the improvement also were the installation of new lighting fixtures and replacement of pupil's desks with those of new and approved design. The new well drilled on the grounds this summer is providing an ample supply of water, those in charge report. The 7th and 8th grades, also equipped with new desks, are served in the rooms formerly used by the high school. Rest rooms were also installed in this building.

Sutherlin

By MRS. BRITAIN SLACK
 Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Miller and son, Avix, of Warm Springs, Ore., spent several days the first of the week in Sutherlin, visiting with Mrs. Miller's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Green and her brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Green.

Mrs. Miller, under went major surgery at Bend several weeks ago and is now getting along very nicely.

Sutherlin streets are decorated with many strings of colored lights and tinsel strung across the streets in the main part of town and large lighted red bells on many of the light poles. A large tree has been placed in the center of the vacant lot on Calapooia street and the lights will be strung by the volunteer fire department.

The Lady Lions, assisted by their husbands, did the decorating.

Mrs. George Green and Mrs. Belle Cook, went to North Bend, Friday to visit with Mrs. Cook's son and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dean Cook. Friday evening they attended Rebekah lodge and witnessed the initiation of Mrs. Dean Cook into the Rebekah Lodge of that city.

Mrs. Lyle Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Slack, were business visitors in Eugene, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Smith, left Monday for California, where they will spend the Christmas and

New Year holidays, visiting with relatives.

Jack Dufur, who has been confined to his home for some time by illness, is able to be out again.

Mr. and Mrs. George Butler, have sold their home east of Sutherlin, and will leave for Los Angeles, the first part of the week to spend Christmas with a son, and then will decide where they will locate, after the holidays.
