

MR. AND MRS. LEROY HIATT, above, are photographed on their silver wedding anniversary at the open-house they held at their home Sunday afternoon to celebrate the affair. Mrs. Hiatt was charming in an afternoon gown of champagne color trimmed with black velvet. She wore a large orchid corsage.

Posing in the center picture are Mrs. John Haskins, Mrs. Lyle Fenner and Mrs. W. A. MacArthur. At the right are Miss Helen Casey, Homer W. Grow and Mrs. J. A. Harding and Mr. Harding. (Pictures by Paul Jenkins)

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hiatt Celebrate Anniversary

More than one-hundred friends called to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Hiatt at their open-house affair in observance of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. Friends were invited to call between the hours of three and six o'clock in the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt were assisted in receiving by their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ward (Yvonne Hiatt), and were also assisted during the afternoon by their son, Jim, who is a freshman at Roseburg high school.

A silver centerpiece and blue candles graced the serving table, while gorgeous bouquets of flowers and gifts from friends were used about the living rooms. Carnations and chrysanthemums predominated in the room bouquets.

Assisting Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt with the affair were Miss Helen Casey, Mrs. J. P. Mutschembacher, Mrs. H. H. Turner, Mrs. W. A. MacArthur, Mrs. Lyle Fenner, Mrs. George Churchill with Mrs. Wayne Privett in charge of the guest book.

Coming from out-of-town for the affair were Mrs. Hiatt's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell E. Weddle, and son and daughter, Bob and Wendy, of Stayton, Ore. Also here from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNeill of Salem, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Hiatt was formerly Cleo Weddle. Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt were married Dec. 29, 1926, at the home of the bride's parents in Stayton, Ore. Three days later, they moved to Roseburg and have resided here ever since. Mr. Hiatt taught in the Senior high school for 18 years, before going with KRNR radio station, which he now serves as manager. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt have taken an active part in church and organization affairs here.

BETROTHAL TOLD—Mr. and Mrs. Herman Hasbargen, Roseburg, announced on Dec. 8, the engagement of their daughter, Miss Grace, to Pvt. Vernon Teater, son of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Teater, North Stephens street, Roseburg. The bride-elect is a senior this year at Roseburg Senior high school. Pvt. Teater, who was graduated from Roseburg Senior high school is now stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash. No date has been set for the wedding. (Picture by Miller-Moderne).

Meat Stew Has Strong Appeal

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Food and Markets Editor

For a good dinner everyone will like, try this recipe:

Catsup Beef Stew
(Makes 4 or 5 servings)
One-quarter cup flour, 1 pound round steak, 2 slices bacon, cut in 1/2-inch pieces, cup chopped onion, 1 tablespoon fat, 3/4 cup catsup, 1/2 cup water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-8 teaspoon pepper, 1-3 cups packaged pre-cooked rice, 1 1/2 cups water, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 pound flour into meat, cut into 1 1/2-inch cubes. Fry bacon until crisp in large pan. Remove bacon and set aside. Sauté onion in bacon drippings until golden brown. Remove onion and set aside. Add fat to drippings, then add meat and brown, stirring frequently. Add catsup, water, salt, pepper, bacon and onion. Cover and simmer about 1 1/2 hours, or until meat is tender, stirring occasionally. Combine rice, water and salt in saucepan. Mix just until all rice is moistened.

Bring quickly to a boil over high heat, uncovered, fluffing gently once or twice with a fork. (Do not stir.) Cover and remove from heat. Let stand 10 minutes. Arrange rice on serving platter. Top with beef stew.
Oysters belong in the American holiday tradition. Roasted and served in their own shells, they are really wonderful eating.
Long Island Roast Oysters
Thirty-six oysters, 8 tablespoons melted butter, 2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley.
The oyster shells must be cleaned very thoroughly (scrubbed with a brush). Place oysters in shell on a baking sheet and roast in hot oven (450 degrees F.) about 15 minutes or until shells open. Serve on cup side of shell, pour the melted butter and parsley over each oyster.

Rep. and Mrs. Crosby Honored at Open-House

Dr. and Mrs. John Haskins entertained at a charming New Year's eve open-house for 70 friends in compliment to their houseguests State Representative and Mrs. Lloyd Crosby of Milwaukee, Ore. Mr. Crosby is a representative from Clackamas county to the state legislature. The holiday motif was beautifully carried out in the decorations.

Dr. and Mrs. Haskins were assisted during the evening by their daughter, Miss Carol, who was home on leave from the Spokane, Wash., Veterans Administration hospital. Miss Haskins is occupational therapist at the hospital.

NEW YEAR'S EVE was enjoyed at the beautiful home of Dr. and Mrs. John Haskins, when they entertained for their houseguests. Above, left to right, Mrs. Haskins, Mrs. Lloyd Crosby, and her husband, State Representative Crosby, of Milwaukee, Ore., Dr. Haskins and Miss Carol Haskins. Below is Miss Carol Haskins, who spent the holidays here with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Haskins. She is occupational therapist at the VA hospital in Spokane. (Pictures by Paul Jenkins)

MR. AND MRS. JOHN L. KORT, above left and right, are pictured with their daughter, Miss Jean, center, who was home for the holidays from Seattle, where she is employed. Miss Kort was joined here later by her friend, Miss Shirley Belanger, also of Seattle, who accompanied her back north Sunday afternoon. (Picture by Stella Senft).

PRIVATE AND MRS. DONALD L. NUZUM, above, pose for the photographer from Clark's studio, following their wedding, which took place Dec. 26 in the evening at the Church of Christ in Roseburg with J. C. Clifford performing the nuptials. Mrs. Lucille Shephard sang, "I Love You Truly." Miss Carleta Cassidy, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Jim Nuzum was best man for his brother. The bride is the former Vivian E. Cassidy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Cassidy of Winston and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry A. Nuzum of Camas Valley. The bride will continue her studies at Roseburg Senior high school until Private Nuzum receives his discharge. He is stationed at Fort Lewis, Wash.

Elgarose

By MRS. THELMA HANSON

Donald Sundberg worked at Art's service station in Roseburg during the Christmas holidays.
Carmen and Larry Cooper spent Christmas day with their father, Roy Cooper.
Mr. and Mrs. Andy Sjogren and family, and Bernard Sjogren visited in Portland for Christmas.
Mr. and Mrs. John Tinker and children, John and Donnita, returned home after spending Christmas holidays with relatives in Fallon, Nev., and Chowchilla, Calif.
Miss Henrietta Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Johnson, returned to Salem, where she teaches school, after spending the holidays with her parents.
Mrs. H. A. Tinker, Bobby and Dwight, returned home Monday after spending the holidays with relatives in Fresno, Calif.

The Melrose P.T.A. will meet Thursday, Jan. 10, at 8 p.m. The program will be "Getting Acquainted with our Foreign Neighbors." Foreign exchange students from the University of Oregon will be guest speakers. Fifth grade mothers will serve refreshments. All members and friends are invited to attend.

Melrose

By NETTIE BURDUFF

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Fretwell and family have moved to the old Edman place which they recently purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Robert Murray. The Murrays plan to move to Winchester in the near future. They spent a few days at the L. L. Chitwood home prior to going to Milton and Freewater, Ore., to spend the holidays with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Ray Doerner, Douglas and Patti, spent Christmas in Portland with Mrs. Doerner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas.

Ray Barrows and son purchased the Rollo Wilson place near Umpqua and recently moved there.
Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sanders visited over New Year's with their son and daughter-in-law, Pvt. and Mrs. Merl Sanders and baby daughter, at Fort Warden, Wash., where Merl is stationed with the army.
The Melrose home Extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Bert Young, Friday, Jan. 4, at 11 a.m. The demonstration, with Mill Patterson in charge, was on window treatments. A potluck lunch was served.
Friday evening Jan. 11, the South

Deer Creek Grange will present their three-act comedy, "Billy's Goat," at the Melrose Grange hall. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. John Wellpot has returned to her home here after a three-week visit with relatives in southern California.
Melrose P.T.A. members are reminded of the meeting Thursday evening Jan. 10 at which time two foreign exchange students from U. of O. will be present to talk on the program.
Herman Stoffel Sr. has been quite ill at his home in Cleveland.
Grange ladies are invited to attend the H. E. club meeting Jan. 9, at 7:30 p.m., with Amy Matthews as assisting hostess.
Mr. and Mrs. Northrup plan to move to Walla Walla, Wash., this month. They recently traded their farm here for a place there.

DINNER PARTY HELD IN YONCALLA RECENTLY

Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Dickey of Yoncalla entertained at a dinner for their employees and their families at the home of Mrs. Pearl Dickey, Yoncalla, during the holidays.

A turkey dinner was served to the following: Mr. and Mrs. Harley Means and son, Bobbie; Mr. and Mrs. John Wykoski, Mrs. Gussie Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis McDaniels, Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cox, Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Dickey, Wilford Raye of Yoncalla and Mrs. Mary Wells of Roseburg.