Suspects In Ohio Hotel Robbery Held At Hillsboro

HILLSBORO — Two men, wanted in the $1,200 holdup of a Cleveland hotel, were arraigned here Wednesday in District Court on a larceny charge and were bound over to the grand jury. The two, Richard Miller, 18, and Kenneth Franklin Schmitz, 29, both of Akron, O., were accused of taking two pistols from a Forest Grove gunshop last Friday, Sheriff, R. H. Busch said. They were arrested at a Hillsboro hotel where they had been staying for the past 10 days.

Busch said they also were being questioned about the $285 robbery of a Cornelius tavern. The sheriff said the two told him they would agree to extradition to Cleveland where they are wanted in the armed robbery of a hotel.

U. S. Letter Reaches GI Prisoner Of Comms

WACO, Tex. — Can Uncle Sam's mail be delivered to an American soldier in a Communist prisoner of war camp in Korea? Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Becker received three letters from their son Thursday. And in one of them, dated Oct. 16, Cpl. J. A. Becker, Jr., wrote that he had received a letter his mother had written him in September. He said he was "greatly relieved" to learn his family knew he was a POW. The son was captured Nov. 2, 1950, and his parents have received two letters written since then—one last July and another in mid-August.
