New VFW Post Comes Into Being At Camas Valley

Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 3970, Camas Valley, came into being Sunday, Jan. 6, with the obligation of 14 charter members, and the installation of officers. A. E. Williams, commander of District 16, acted as commander of the post for the installation proceedings. The installing officer was T. F. Holmes, deputy chief of staff of Oregon, deputized by State Commander Ashworth, who could not attend because of weather conditions in Portland. Acting quartermaster was Kenneth Miller, past post commander of Roseburg. Daniel Koth, commander of the Myrtle Creek Post, was senior vice commander, and the position of junior vice commander was held by Wallace Cox, past Commander of Roseburg. Chaplain was John Angland, Post commander of Canyonville. The new officers for Post 3970 installed Sunday are: Ranom Standley, commander; Charles Miller, senior vice commander; John Looney, junior vice commander; Eugene Arnold, quartermaster; Marlen Yoder, adjutant; Leon Ashton, chaplain, and Ernie Fisher, surgeon. Trustees are Glen Fisher and Bruce Priest, for one and two year terms, respectively. At the close of the installation ceremony, the gavel was turned over to Commander Standley.

Civilian Return Of Ike For GOP Meet Still Open

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Lodge (R-Mass.) said Wednesday he believes the door still is open for Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower to return to civilian life before the Republican presidential nominating convention. Lodge told a reporter he does not interpret Eisenhower's statement that he would not ask for relief from his European defense assignment as foreclosing all possibility—aside from presidential action—that the general take off his uniform before July. "But I agree that he can not make any statement on the issues of the pre-convention campaign while he is still in uniform," Lodge said, a strong Eisenhower supporter. Lodge said in some respects he supported the Eisenhower campaign will parallel that which won the GOP nomination for the late Wendell L. Willkie in 1940. "We are going to mobilize the sentiment for the general which is sweeping the country," Lodge declared. Against this type of campaign by proxy, Senator Taft (R-Ohio), an active candidate for the nomination, outlined an intensive speaking and hand-shaking drive which will keep him busy until April 1. He begins his tours with a Jan. 21 campaign opening Taft headquarters in Madison, Wis. Taft told a reporter he will make a West Coast swing in February, speaking in Spokane and Seattle in Washington, Portland, Ore., Cheyenne, Wyo., and Denver. After April, Taft said he plans

Rehearsal Too Tough For Actor's Head, Face
 ROME (AP)—Arnaldo Mocchetti, a 41-year old movie actor, reported to a Rome hospital Tuesday with a swollen face and a severe headache. He told the attendant on duty that he had rehearsed a scene with Movie Star Anna Magnani for eight hours. The scene called for Anna to slap him across the face.
