Defense Chief Orders Reduction In Utensil Output

WASHINGTON — Production of most household goods—such things as television sets, radios, refrigerators, electric ironers and other appliances—is due to be cut to 45 per cent of the pre-Korea levels in the quarter beginning April 1. This would be 10 per cent below present permitted production rates.

This word came Wednesday from Manly Fleischmann, defense production administrator who said also that in this quarter:

Construction of new houses is to be curtailed from the present annual rate of 850,000 to a rate of 660,000 a year.

Automobile production is to be reduced at least seven per cent below the present rate. The DPA allowed the manufacturers only enough copper and aluminum to produce 800,000 cars and only enough steel to produce 900,000 in the quarter.

May Stretch

The makers were authorized to stretch these materials, if possible, to make 930,000 in the second quarter.

Fleischmann testified before the Senate-House "watchdog" committee studying the defense mobilization programs. It is headed by Sen. Maybank (D-S.C.), who said the mobilization agencies are earmarking for civilian production as much steel and other scarce materials as possible.

Fleischmann said enough allotments would be made to support present school and hospital building projects and to start construction of some new buildings.

The number of new railroad cars to be produced will be reduced about 14 per cent, he testified. He said there would be some increase in shipbuilding but that only the most important new highways could be built.

DIALOG FOR FRIDAY BETTY
 Tonight at 7:00, hear Ann Sothen as Maisie, in the ADVENTURES OF MAISIE, when she breaks up a would-be Hollywood talent scout's racket during the harum-scarum broadcast. Maisie poses as a stage-struck girl to trap the swindler after a rollicking adventure. I can't imagine anyone better suited to play the part like that.

"A PORTRAIT OF A BUST" and "They Buried Me On The Lone Prairie" are the titles of two paintings by Jack Bailey, M. C. of Queens For a Day on exhibition by the Business Men's Art Institute of Los Angeles at the Broadway. The exhibition opened Jan. 7, and Jack's paintings will be on display through Jan. 14. That is, unless Washington starts an investigation beforehand. Queen for a Day is heard week-daily at 11:30.

TONIGHT AT 7:30, the "Clisco Kid" faces another adventure with an outlaw who was so crazed with a desire for vengeance, that his only thought was to kill. The title of this adventure is "The Killer in Virginia City."

"LOTS TO REPORT for tonight. "Reporters Roundup" guest (new time) will be W. Averell Harriman, administrator of the Mutual Security Agency and the President's special ambassador. Moving from Thursday to Friday, 8:00 to 8:30 p.m. Also, the late night mystery CRIME DOES NOT PAY stars screen star Arleen Whelan in the story of "The Visiting Firemen." This intriguing title unfolds the facts behind one of the oldest sucker games. . . the exploitation of respectable married men who are out for a night "on the town." That's 10:30 tonight.

PREVIEW FOR SUNDAY Chicago Theater of the Air will present "PAGANINI," based on the life of the great violinist-composer Niccolò Paganini, co-starring soprano Nancy Carr and tenor David Poler in the major singing roles. For you music lovers, this is a must. Chicago Theater of the Air is heard locally from 10:30 to 11:30.
