Jobless Mexican Busy In Marriage Market

MEXICO CITY (AP) — Chatting at the market, two Mexican wives compared notes on their husbands and found they were both married to the same man. They complained to police.

The police found the wives had learned only half the story. The husband, Rafael Estrada Huerta, was charged Wednesday with taking on four wives in 11 months. He hasn't got a job either.

Transportation Strike Descends On Baltimore

BALTIMORE — The Public Transportation System of Baltimore braked to a halt early Thursday as 3,200 employees of the Baltimore Transit Co. went out on strike.

Pickets started marching in a cold, steady rain before all BTC terminals.

Reapportionment Move Advised By Sprague

PORTLAND (AP) — It will be up to the people of Oregon to bring about sensible reapportionment of the state, Ex-Gov. Charles A. Sprague, state publisher, said here Wednesday.

Legislators just won't do a good job of it, because no legislator wants to reapportion himself out of a job, Sprague told the League of Women voters.

The only defensible way to reapportion the state is by population, he said, adding that an initiative measure to bring it about should be started before the legislature passes an ineffectual bill.

M. A. Rands, Engineer Of N. W. Note, Passes

PORTLAND (AP) — Funeral services will be held here Friday for Harold A. Rands, 80 engineer who helped pick the sites for Bonneville and McNary Dams on the Columbia River.

With the Army Engineers here from 1928 to 1948, he also did the survey for the original Willamette Valley flood control project. After retirement in 1948, he continued as a consultant to the Corps of Engineers. He died Tuesday.
