Mrs. J. F. Dillard Gives First of Party Series

The first of a series of charming parties to be given by Mrs. J. F. Dillard at her beautiful new home on Hawthorne Terrace was enjoyed Friday afternoon.

A one o'clock dessert-luncheon was served by the hostess preceding the card play. Pale pink carnations in a Chinese Voyager centered the prettily appointed table, while carnations and chrysanthemums formed the bouquets about the rooms.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Clyde E. Knight, Mrs. Fred Stever, Mrs. L. G. Twohy, Mrs. C. R. Connelly of Modesto, Calif., Mrs. Walter Brydges, Mrs. W. F. Amiot, Mrs. James Hughes, Mrs. W. C. Callison, Mrs. Mitchell Moore, Mrs. Roy W. Sedell, Mrs. A. F. Micelli and Mrs. Frederick J. Porter.

The occasion marked the birthday anniversary of Mrs. Hughes, who received a lovely corsage from the hostess.

Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon with Mrs. Hughes winning the high score and Mrs. Brydges winning second high score.

Mrs. Connelly and daughter, Bonnie, spent the holidays in Roseburg with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Roy W. Sedell, and left Monday for their home in Modesto.
