Golly... I've been here a year and I'm still as good as new. I don't know a thing about the work.

THE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE prospectus being held by J. H. Stone gets the attention of Dr. A. L. Strand, right, president of Oregon State College, and Hal Schmeer during a tour of Roseburg Monday. A tour of Roseburg's industries was planned in connection with Dr. Strand's visit. Stone is the regional forester for the North Pacific Region of the U. S. National Forest. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

Winston

By MRS. GEORGE BACHER
A new housing project, already underway, is expected to alleviate the shortage of homes for newcomers daily coming to this community. The building sites are located on the hill northwest of Winston on the Lookingglass Road. The ground was purchased by Jim Richey from the former owner, Kelly Dunham. Three of the buildings are under construction and more are planned upon their completion.
Feb. 1 has been set tentatively as the opening date for Winston's new department store. The venture will be located in the Saksdorf Building in the new wing adjoining Howard's Hardware Store. A complete line of men's, women's and children's clothing will be offered, according to the proprietor, Lonnie Hollenbeck. Four clerks will be in his employ.
Hollenbeck comes here from Powers. He owns a similar establishment there, which his wife will continue to operate, he said.
R. H. Barney has been placed in charge of the new real estate office in Winston. Located in the old post-office building, the office is a branch of Roseburg Realty. Barney, it will be recalled, is that adventurous sailor who in a 26 foot boat sailed, alone, to Tahiti a short time ago. Putting out to sea in the San Pedro breakwaters, he sailed 48 days and six hours before reaching his destination—with only the birds and fish for company.

Real estate isn't new to him, though. "It's all I've ever done for a living," he said. That applies to land and sea alike. Once, while laying-to in Panama, he sold two lots to residents of Panama. The lots were located on Moro Bay, where he was employed as a real-estate-between voyagers.
Mrs. Robert Nichols has been released from Douglas Community Hospital and allowed to return home to Winston. The nature of her illness makes it necessary for her to continue daily medical treatments in Roseburg for a prolonged period, however.
Four-year-old James Leonard Scroggin was severely scalded Wednesday. Curious about the contents of a kettle simmering on the kitchen stove, the youngster upset it. The results were painful burns about the face, particularly around the region of one eye.

Young Scroggin is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ruby Scroggin of Winston. He is being treated by Dr. A. N. Johnson.
It's triple-trouble in the Robert Nichols home. No sooner had Mrs. Nichols been discharged from the hospital, following medical attention, than her husband suffered a strained back. The accident occurred while he was in the employ of Consolidated Freightlines in Roseburg.
But that isn't all:
Almost simultaneously, their eldest son, Gary, became the third victim. Gary received a bruised bone in a fall and took to his bed. "We're just wondering who'll be next," Mrs. Nichols is quoted as saying. There are seven children in the family.
A guest in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hill is the latter's mother, Mrs. Mollie Forgy, of Susanville, Calif.
Little Marvin Slack, one-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Slack, is reported to be improved in health. He was recently discharged from Doernbecher Hospital in Portland. There, his parents were advised that surgery would be necessary later before his complete recovery could be assured.

and daughters, Linda and Cheryl, spent a week at Christmas time in Ellensburg, Wash., with Mrs. McDaniel's parents.
Mr. and Mrs. William Person and son, Don, of Wilbur and Mrs. Linda Hopple of Winston were dinner guests at the Degner Ranch on New Year's Day.
Mrs. Julia Enlow who suffered a broken leg from a fall off a ladder, is in Douglas Community Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. Carl Stocking of Roseburg and Leslie Catchpole were New Year's dinner guests at the Charles McDaniel home.
Mrs. Mercy Buell of Dillard injured her hip in a fall at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Diedrich, Wednesday. She was taken to the Douglas Community Hospital.
Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Phelps of Yoncalla spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Degner on the Reston Road.
Mr. Ed Nickelson, who was seriously injured in an auto accident sometime ago, is reported to be slowly recovering at the Douglas Community Hospital.

Willamette Stake Holds Priesthood Meeting
The new Willamette Stake of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints held its first monthly priesthood meeting in the Ward Chapel at Eugene Jan. 9 at 8 p.m., with President Ralph B. Lake presiding.
Bishop Clifford Bagley of the Roseburg Ward and several members of both the Assnion and Melchizedek priesthood were in attendance.
