Winston
 By MRS. GEORGE BACHER

Everett Perry has been released from the Veterans Hospital after receiving medical attention. During his absence, his wife and three sons visited with Mrs. Perry's parents in Salem. The Perrys reside in Winston. He is employed as a teacher in the Tennille School.

Recent guests in the Robert Nichols home were Mrs. Nichols' sister, Mrs. Ed Pritenard, of Veneta, and her brother, "Rusty" Kelly. The latter, whose home is in Elmira, is at present serving with the U. S. Air Forces. On furlough at the time of his visit from Albuquerque, N. M., he was enroute to his new base in San Francisco. He left Friday.

Now open for business in Winston is Welch Brothers' Motor and Machine Company.

Reported improved in health are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Harrison. The couple has been confined to their home in Winston the past week with measles.

A half hour program dedicated to Winston's honored pioneers, and showing a century of progress for the community itself, will be heard over radio station KRXL, on Sunday afternoon, Jan. 20, at 2:00 p.m. Script for the program was prepared by Mrs. George Bacher, member of the Roseburg Writers Club.

Members of the Winston-Dillard Home Extension Unit are reminded of the moving picture depicting the early symptoms of breast cancer, which will be shown at the home of Mrs. Carl Borgaas Friday, Jan. 18, at 1:30 p.m. The sound picture is being shown themselves against an imaginary evil, it was hard to tell. These pheasants make their home in Winston section, wandering unimpeded on the properties of the Brosius, the Fromdahls, the Masters' and the Bachers. They showed no fear of their human neighbors. Unless startled, they will browse right into the yards.
