

MELROSE GRANGE HAS INTERESTING MEETING ON TUESDAY EVENING

Melrose Grange met Tuesday evening at the hall with Paul H. Krueger, master, in charge. Committees appointed included: Agriculture, R. A. Busenbark; Home Economics, Trozie Nielsen; Relief, Cecelia Kenyon; Legislative, D. M. Busenbark, and Roads, Otto Matthews.

During the Lecturer's hour, D. N. Busenbark gave a most interesting talk on "The History of the Melrose Grange." Mr. Busenbark served as the first master of Melrose Grange 41 years ago. He related a number of experiences of by-gone days and stated that the Grangers used to attend meetings by making the trip to the hall and home by lantern and that many traveled farther that way in those days than those having cars to furnish the transportation to the meetings at this time.

Twenty-five year silver star certificates were presented to Mabel, D. N. Alice and R. A. Busenbark, Robert Tjomsland, Amy L. Kruse and Amy Matthews. Not present, but also eligible for this award were: Fred and Alice Goff, Kenneth L. Conn, E. R. Fenn and T. B. Busenbark.

It was decided to hold a social night the second Saturday evening of every month at the hall.

Plans were made for a "Chuck Wagon" dinner to be served at the hall Feb. 2 from 6:30 to 8 p.m. The public is invited. A charge for the dinner will be made.

GOD'S WORD

1. Wherefore laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies and envies, and all evil speakings,
2. As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:
3. If so be ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.
