Menaces To U. S. Security Brand On Man, Wife

WASHINGTON (AP)—Grace Granich, described by another witness as a long-time Communist functionary, was denounced by members of the House un-American Activities Committee Thursday as a menace to the security of the United States.

Mrs. Granich refused to answer all questions about her activities since 1930 on grounds that to answer might tend to incriminate her. She and her husband, Max, were subpoenaed before the committee as it followed up testimony by Louis Budenz, former Communist editor, that they engaged in Communist propaganda activities in China, and supplied means for transmitting Moscow directives and information to the Communist Party of the United States.

Despite threat of contempt citations, the Granichs claimed their constitutional privilege against being required to give self-incriminating testimony.

"You and your husband have been dangerous to the security of the country for the past 20 years," Rep. Velde (R-Ill.) remarked at the conclusion of Mrs. Granich's testimony.

THE HOUSE THAT RADIO BUILT: The first "Voice of Prophecy" program, which was aired some ten years ago, originated from a converted Glendale, Calif. garage. The broadcast is now presented from a new quarter-million dollar structure that not only houses the studios, but also office facilities and a printing plant for the monthly "Voice of Prophecy News." This structure was built through the support of the program's many friends around the world, hence the saying, "The house that radio built." Today, this program circles the globe. "The Voice of Prophecy" is heard Sundays, 9:30 to 10:00 a.m.

"THE SHADOW" slips behind the iron curtain! A search for an imprisoned atomic scientist takes Lamont Cranston, as "The Shadow," behind the iron curtain. Using his hypnotic power to make himself invisible, the shadow makes good the rescue and completes a "Journey into Danger." Sunday, 2:00 to 2:30 p.m. Immediately following, 2:30 to 3:00, True Detective Mysteries brings the startling case of "The man everybody wanted to murder." When the unpopular man, known as Rudy the Bartender, comes up as a corpse, police uncover a huge list of suspects. However, persistent and diligent work on the part of lawmen finally uncovers the real killer of "The man everybody wanted to murder." Wouldn't you hate to be that unpopular?

Getting away from Curpes, I think, will be the "Gabby Hayes show." A rip-roaring adventure from the town of Tombstone, Ariz., back in the 80's. Sunday, 3:00 to 3:30 p.m.

FOR A DRAMATIZATION behind the scenes of hospital life, listen to the Story of Dr. Kildare, starring Lew Ayres as Dr. Kildare, and Lionel Barrymore (the incomparable Barrymore), as Dr. Gillespie. You can hear Dr. Kildare each Sunday evening at 7:30.

MET OPERA SOPRANO Eleanor Steber will be guest of "Twenty Questions," favorite "animal, vegetable or mineral" game, this Sunday evening at 8:00. The famed singer joins the regular panelists in guessing the answers to listener-submitted questions. You might try your luck and submit a question. The prizes are well worth while. Not having their address at hand, we're sure it will reach the proper paw if you send care of the Don Lee Broadcasting System, 1313 North Vine Street, Hollywood, California.

TOMORROW at 1:30 p.m. brings something new in the documentary type program: Sub-titled, BEGINNING OF THE WORLD, it's presenting great ideas and achievements of men in history dramatized by Sherman Dryer. This particular premiere broadcast is titled "OUT OF THUNDER."

Sophomore fullback Nell Worden led the Notre Dame football team in scoring in '51 with eight touchdowns for 48 points.

West Germany Wants U. S. Loan For Rearming

BONN, Germany (AP)—The West German government plans to ask the United States for a big loan—probably several hundred million dollars—to help put German troops into the field with the proposed European army, Allied officials said Friday.

A formal request for the loan will be submitted to Washington when a "peace contract," now under negotiation, is signed with the three Western occupation powers—France, Britain and the U.S.—next spring, the officials said.

This "peace contract" will start German rearming inside the proposed unified European defense force and will return to them almost full control of their own affairs. The Allied officials gave this picture of the loan request shaping up:

The Germans will contend they alone cannot finance formation of a new armed force from scratch after seven years of Allied demilitarization programs.

In addition, the Germans expect the United States to provide the bulk of military equipment—including tanks, artillery and planes needed by 12 divisions plus the tactical air force they plan to organize.

In "peace contract" talks, the Germans already have agreed to continue to pay part of the cost of keeping Allied occupation troops on in Germany as a defense force after the contract is signed. The exact sum has not been agreed on but the Germans want a substantial reduction in present occupation payments.

Seven of Michigan State's backs averaged better than 4.5 yards per carry during the '51 football season.
