The bride is the former Miss Carolee Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl J. Johnson, McMinnville, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joe E. Matthews, Roseburg. The ceremony took place at 2 p.m. in the sanctuary of the First Baptist church with Rev. Elton E. Smith performing the impressive double ring ceremony.

Preceding the ceremony, tapers which formed an arch at the altar, were lighted by Miss Priscilla Tennis and Miss Joanne Frink of McMinnville. Dale Johnson of Carlton, sang "At Dawning" and "O, Promise Me" accompanied on the organ by Harold C. Elkinton of McMinnville.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a charming white satin gown, the neckline of which was trimmed with seed pearls as was the headpiece. A fingertip veil was attached to the cap. She also wore a double strand pearl necklace, a gift of the bridegroom. Her bridal bouquet was a shower of white satin ribbons and bouvardia centered with a cluster of white baby orchids.

Mrs. Glenn Tucker of McMinnville acted as matron of honor for her cousin and wore a floor length gown of deep blue velvet.

The bridesmaids were dressed in floor length velvet gowns and were, Mrs. Richard Buswell of Roseburg, sister of the bridegroom; Mrs. Rena Talver of McMinnville, both in green and Miss Louise Van Hine and Mrs. Bobbie Collins of McMinnville in red. Each carried a shower bouquet of all white chrysanthemums.

Richard Buswell of Roseburg, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was the best man. Ushers included: Robert B. Johnson of McMinnville; Lt. Kenneth C. Johnson of Camp Pendleton, Calif., brother of the bride and Donald Kruse and Oliver Allen of Roseburg.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the Fireplace Room. Assisting at the bride's table were her aunts, Mrs. E. W. McNamer of Willamina; Mrs. C. M. Wright of Sheridan, cutting and serving the cake; Mrs. O. C. Yocom of Willamina, pouring coffee and Mrs. Clarence Hebert of Oakridge presiding at the punch bowl.

Gifts were received and displayed by Miss Billie Hamilton of Eugene and Miss Ramona Thacker of Albany, sorority sisters of the bride and Miss Janet Skinner of McMinnville. Miss Diane Petersen of McMinnville was in charge of the guest book.

After a short trip to Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews left Christmas day for Oakland, Calif., where they will make their home. Mr. Matthews, who is in the navy attends electrical technicians school at Treasure Island.

JOLLY CIRCLE CLUB HAS DESSERT-LUNCH
