

MRS. CLARK LEEDY, above left, chats with Maurice J. Newland, Mrs. Newland, Mrs. Robert P. Kidder and Mrs. Robert N. Browning, at the reception given in her honor by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins, at their home in Laurelwood

Thursday evening. Mrs. Leedy left this week for Portland to visit Attorney and Mrs. William W. Knight and family prior to going to San Francisco to make her home.

Mrs. Clark Leedy Is Honored at Reception

To compliment their daughter, Mrs. Clark Leedy, nee Meredith Anne Jenkins, a very large reception was given Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Jenkins at their beautiful home on Riverside Drive in Laurelwood. More than 200 friends were invited to call between eight and eleven o'clock.

Mrs. Leedy has been spending the last several weeks in Roseburg with her parents since returning from a six months study in art in Europe on a scholarship awarded to her from the Parsons School of Design in New York City. Mrs. Leedy left Wednesday for Portland to visit Attorney and Mrs. William W. Knight and family prior to going to San Francisco to make her home.

Shades of red carnations and fern formed the bouquet on the mantle. An especially beautiful bouquet in the living room was of Dutch Iris and pussywillows circled with crystal balls and lighted by blue lights.

The buffet table was covered by a cut-work cloth and centered with a china compote filled with frosted fruits and white carnations and backed by six white candles in silver candelabra.

Alternating in pouring were Mrs. A. J. Young, Mrs. R. L. Whipple, Mrs. G. V. Wimberly, Mrs. J. A. Harding, Mrs. H. H. Stapleton and Mrs. Edger Lewis.
