Joan McMichael Is Bride of James Loyd

A background of ferns, centered with a large lighted cross, formed a beautiful setting for the marriage of Miss Joan McMichael daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd McMichael, Yoncalla, to James Loyd, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Loyd of Yoncalla. The ceremony took place, Friday evening, Dec. 21, at the Yoncalla Church of Christ in the presence of 150 friends and relatives.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was beautiful in the traditional white satin gown, fashioned princess style, with long sleeves, a net yoke and long train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a crown of seed pearls. She carried a bouquet of pink chrysanthemums with large yellow centers and a shower of white satin ribbon. Her only ornament was a cross necklace, which had belonged to her great-grandmother. For something old she wore a white slip that her grandmother had worn at her wedding.

Miss Joanne Downing of Ashland was maid of honor and wore a pale blue satin formal. She carried an old fashioned nosegay of pink and white carnations. Miss Dorothy Coliver of Eugene, in a rose formal, Miss Esther Benner silver weskit, and Miss Joyce Potter in pale green were bridesmaids and carried nosegays bouquets of pink and white carnations. Miss Sybil Lewey in a pink formal, and Miss Maxine Potter in a pale blue formal lit the two tall candelabras. Mrs. Arne Bjork played music before the ceremony, also the traditional wedding marches. Mrs. Floyd McMichael, mother of the bride, sang "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer" accompanied by Mrs. Bjork, Little Judy Patrick, in a pink taffeta formal, scattered rose petals before the bride and Harry McMichael, brother of the bride, carried the two rings on a white satin pillow.

Vernon Raper, college friend of the bridegroom was best man, and the ushers were Gerald Rust, Don Wise and James McMichael. Rev. Fred Evans, pastor of the church, officiated.

A reception was held following the ceremony. Mrs. Jerry Means, sister of the bridegroom had charge of the guest book. After the usual first cutting of the large four tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom, cake and punch were served. Mr. and Mrs. Loyd are both students at the NCC College in Eugene and will resume their studies the first of the year.

The bridegroom is a graduate of both Yoncalla Grade and High Schools, graduating from high school with the class of '31. The bride is a graduate of the Drain High School with the class of '31. They are both active in church work.

Returned Missionary Gives Interesting Talk

At the January meeting of the Presbyterian Woman's Society Miss Florence Logan, recently returned missionary from China, presented the cruel picture of communistic control of the person and thinking of the Chinese people. All are registered with the police and must report to them before they can even visit a relative overnight. There are severe consequences for anyone objecting to the Communist regime by word, gesture, expression or attitude.

Miss Logan outlined two vital steps for Christians to take: First, pray diligently for the Chinese out of all help including missionaries and missionary gifts and second, intensify the effort to help all other nations fight the insidious destruction of freedom by communistic infiltration and control.

The group was grateful to Miss Logan for her message of courage and action against the workers of evil.

The meeting was preceded by a beautifully arranged dessert-luncheon served by the hostess committee of Mrs. Earl Plummer, chairman, Mrs. Ed Bayless, Mrs. George Kohlhaugen, Mrs. E. K.
