Helen Casey Presents Play For Woman's Club

The most artistically presented play to be given by Miss Helen Casey for the Roseburg Woman's Club was a very successful and enjoyable event Tuesday afternoon at the clubhouse for the annual Scholarship Loan Fund tea.

The play, "A Chinese Romance," was presented by the following cast: Miss Casey, Pauline Winston, Norma Wheaton, Alice Ueland and Hildred Beauchamp.

Miss Muriel Mitchell introduced the program and gave special thanks for play properties to: Miss Rosa B. Parrott, Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Kidder, Mrs. George Kohlhagen, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Dillard, Mrs. Arthur Clarke, Mrs. J. E. Sawyers, Mrs. Kenneth Winston, Mrs. M. C. Cassel, Miss Alice Ueland, Miss Gertrude Rast, Mrs. George E. Houck, Mrs. Paul Jenkins, Miller's store and Mrs. John Young. Special mention went to Mrs. Clark Leedy and Bob Wiles, who painted the beautiful blue plate, which formed the center of the stage setting and a delightful feature of the program was the Chinese music played by Naomi Scott, Beulah Roach, Jean Marr and Pat Mayo, who wore attractive Chinese costumes. The latter four compose the Scott String Quartet.

The stage setting was elaborate and colorful. The entire cast was highly congratulated upon the professional presentation of the play. More than 200 attended the affair. Mrs. Earl Plummer, president, conducted the business meeting, which preceded the play. Mrs. Clyde W. W. Carstens accompanied the community sing, which was led by Mrs. Lester F. Nielsen. Mrs. M. H.

Roach gave the invocation. Reports were given by Mrs. E. L. Goodwin, Mrs. Frank Ashley, Wimberly, Mrs. P. E. Beaver, Mrs. J. M. Boyles and Mrs. Charles Hafer.

An out-line of the state board meeting was given by Mrs. E. L. Tauscher and Mrs. Lester F. Nielsen gave a short talk on "The Scholarship Loan Fund."

Mrs. E. J. Sullivan will serve as chairman of the rummage sale to be held Jan. 26 at the Clubhouse beginning at 9 a.m. The clubhouse will be open from 10 a.m. throughout the day Friday to receive donations for the sale. Volunteering to assist Mrs. Sullivan were: Mrs. Robert Burton, Mrs. A. J. Geddes, Mrs. J. M. Boyles, Miss Jennie E. Jorey, Mrs. W. I. Dixon, Mrs. Foster Butner, Mrs. Earl Plummer, Mrs. Albert Kronke, Mrs. Mabel Wilson and Mrs. Hurley.

The club has arranged magazines at the clubhouse for sale. Plans are underway for a spring flower show. The club is assisting with the annual March of Dimes drive and Mrs. A. E. Kent is serving as chairman for the club.

Mrs. Kenneth Ford stated the Garden Department will have Dr. John Hadley of Seattle as guest speaker at a meeting Jan. 30 at two o'clock at the clubhouse. All persons interested in gardening are invited. Mrs. Ford also requested members to keep in mind that this is the Centennial year for Roseburg.

Guests were introduced. It was announced that a memorial gift had been given the club by Mrs. George Kohlhagen in memory of his sister, Frances Howell. Mrs. H. D. Scott was appointed to take the place of Mrs. W. L. Cobb as a member of the board of directors and a member of the building committee as Mrs. Cobb is moving to California.

Miss Jennie E. Jorey and Mrs. J. J. Kester were co-chairmen of the hostess committee and were assisted by Mrs. Rodney Knott, Mrs. E. L. Knapp, Mrs. Fred A. Knight, Mrs. A. B. Taylor, Mrs. D. A. Kier, Mrs. George Kohlhagen, Mrs. B. H. Laird, Mrs. A. E. Kent, Mrs. C. E. Crawford and Mrs. H. L. Lander.

The lace-covered tea table was centered with a globe of the world flanked by flags of many countries and tall white tapers. Of special interest was the beautiful antique silver tea and coffee service given to the club by its founder and first president, Mrs. George R. Child, of San Francisco. Mrs. Child was the principle donor of the recently completed clubhouse. Mrs. G. V. Wimberly and Mrs. I. B. Riddle poured.

MRS. ABNER RICE SR. IS HONORED AT PARTY

Mrs. Abner Rice Sr. was the inspiration for a charming birthday dinner given Sunday at the spacious Rice home on Willis Creek in Dillard. Mrs. Victor Rice and Mrs. Buellah Enger cooked and served the delicious chicken dinner at six o'clock. The table was beautifully appointed with the hostesses' new Dresden China. The large table was centered with two lovely decorated birthday cakes, one in pink and the other in white. The three granddaughters, Illis Fay Rice, Anita Jo Rice and Glenda Rae Rice all sang "Happy Birthday" to their grandmother.

Many lovely gifts were presented to the honored guest from her family. Music and visiting were enjoyed until a late hour at which time further refreshments of ice cream and birthday cake were served. Members of the family present were: Mr. and Mrs. Victor Rice and daughter Anita Jo and son, Rip; Mr. and Mrs. Abner Rice Jr. and daughter, Glenda Rae; Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Rice and daughter, Illis Fay and Mrs. Rice's mother, Mrs. Buellah Enger; Mrs. Sadie Sheridan and the honored guest, Mrs. Rice.

USING THE BEAUTIFUL TEA AND COFFEE SERVICE, a gift from Mrs. G. R. Child to the Roseburg Woman's Club, is Mrs. G. V. Wimberly. Mrs. Child, club founder and first president as well as the principle donor of the new clubhouse, recently presented the tea and coffee service to the club. It had been in her family nearly 100 years. Left to right, standing are: Mrs. Sig Fett, Mrs. O. J. Fett Sr., of Timber Lake, S. D., Mrs. V. J. Anderson and Mrs. Dick Walsh. The service was used at the annual Scholarship Loan Fund tea held by the club Tuesday afternoon. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

FIVE GENERATIONS—Mrs. Joe Strickling, holding Michael, Mrs. Olive Homme, Canyonville; Mrs. Nellie Baird, Oakland, and Mrs. Homer Strickling, Roseburg. Mrs. Baird, who was recently honored on Queen For A Day, because she is a Civil War widow, has resided in the west 44 years. Her late husband was a second lieutenant in the Infantry Volunteers in the Civil War. All of her family reside in Douglas County. Michael Strickling is 10 months of age. St. Onge-Jones Wedding Is Event of Dec. 28th

Betty Jean Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray E. Jones of Roseburg, became the bride of Richard N. St. Onge, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Summers of Roseburg, Dec. 28 at the Church of the Open Bible in Roseburg. Rev. Clarence Anderson performed the impressive ceremony. Ray Estess sang "Jesus Saviour Pilot Me" and Mrs. Clarence Anderson did the solo of "Because."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white slipper satin gown with a sweetheart neckline, long train and long sleeves. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

The matron of honor, Margaret Estes, sister of the bride was gowned in a blue taffeta dress. Bridesmaids, Mildred Broadbent and Anita St. Onge, wore pink satin formals and carried nosegays. Candelighters were Olive May Jones, sister of the bride and Marlene Summers, sister of the bridegroom.

Jim St. Onge acted as best man for his brother and Stanford Williams and Ray Estes were ushers. Donna Millsten was flower girl and Robert Haines carried the rings on a small pillow.

A reception followed the services in the basement of the First Christian Church. For traveling the bride chose a light brown suit with dark brown accessories. She wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. St. Onge is employed at the New Service Laundry and Mr. St. Onge is in the U. S. Navy.
