

NEW PARISH HOUSE — Extending to the right of the main St. George's Episcopal Church building, above, is the new parish house that was completed Jan. 12. The new structure was designed and built by L. K. Cornwell, First National Bank Building. Construction of the building began Sept. 1. This is the second building to be added to the church's holdings within a year. On July 1, 1951, a new rectory house was dedicated. The property now occupied by the parish house has been church-owned since 1860. St. George's Guild held the first meeting in the building Wednesday noon. Monday night the new parish house will be the scene of the annual church meeting. A potluck supper will be served and vestrymen will be elected. (Picture by Paul Jenkins)

The Earl of Dalkeith

Princess Margaret Rose

ROYAL ENGAGEMENT AHEAD? A visit by the Earl of Dalkeith, 28, above, to Princess Margaret Rose at Sandringham, the King of England's private estate rekindled London rumors that announcement of a royal engagement may be expected soon. Dalkeith, heir to a fortune and most eligible young man in Britain, has been listed as a strong contender for the hand of the 21-year-old princess for the past three years. British observers noted a parallel between the royal family's gathering at Sandringham, with Dalkeith present, and the circumstances that saw engagement of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip four years ago. Princess Margaret insists she's in no hurry to wed, may wait until she is 25.

CANDIDATE PREPARES—Assisted by his wife, Fred C. Proehl, Greenback Party presidential nominee, checks mail in the living room-office of their Seattle, Wash., grocery store.

AWARE OF DISTINCTION—Visitors to annual New York poultry show saw many sights but none as unusual as this rare bearded buff-faced Polish hen held by Gale Ueland.
