Bible Academy Downs Irish Five

Canyonville Bible Academy continued with a spotless record Tuesday night by winning its seventh consecutive game of the season at Riddle, 48-35.

The academicians used their superior height to play the game far over the heads of the stubborn Irish. Riddle was only behind by seven points at the half, but the visitors eased ahead to a 36-25 lead at the third break.

Dick Mannwarren of the Academy and John Rigby of Riddle tied for high point honors with 14 points each.

The Riddle Jayvees won the opener, 51-27, with Ray Rhodes scoring 20.

Women Golfers Tee Off Today

MIAMI, Fla. — Thirty-two of the nation's best women golfers teed off Thursday in the first round of match play in the 20th annual Helen Lee Doherty Golf Tournament.

They were in the championship fight and scored 87 or better to gain the select circle over a bulky field of nearly 150 players who battled over the Miami Country Club course Wednesday in the qualifying round.

Defending Champion Claire Doran of Cleveland faced Mrs. Ann Sparrow Robertson of Miami, who had an 82, in the upper bracket.

Medalist Mae Murray of Rutland, Vt., carded a 35-39-74 to pace the bulky field and heads the lower bracket.

Walcott-Charles Dispute Rages

NEW YORK — The battle of wits and statements among most of the principals in the proposed Jersey Joe Walcott-Emory Charles heavyweight championship fight, continued to blaze merrily Thursday.

New York State Athletic Commissioner Bob Christenberry is determined Jersey Joe will defend against Charles from whom he won the title last July 18, and he's giving the veteran Camden, N. J., gladiator until Feb. 5 to agree.

In Portland, Me., Walcott said he had fought 21 years before he won the title and "no one's gonna take it away from me outside a ring."

Felix Bocchicchio, manager of the heavyweight titleholder, would like to fight either Rocky Marciano or Harry Matthews, and make no bones about it. He even said he was forced to agree to a return bout with Charles "under duress."

Matthews' manager, Jack Hurley, who does his battling via long distance from his base of operations in Seattle, said his man will fight Walcott—and for the title.

"I wonder if Christenberry will recognize Harry as champion when he beats Joe," mused Hurley.

That's how things stood when President Jim Norris of the International Boxing Club, the promoter of the proposed fight, retreated to his Coral Gables, Fla., winter home. He has a date there on Feb. 1 with Bocchicchio and Jake Mintz, Charles' co-manager.

Cuban Judge Slated For Gavilan's Fight

MIAMI, Fla. — When Kid Gavilan, welterweight boxing champion from Havana, Cuba, risks his title here against Bobby Dykes of Miami on Feb. 4, a Cuban judge will be at the ringside.

Basketball Scandals Entangle 32

NEW YORK — The basketball scandals, which have been running for a year and a week, Thursday had entangled eight colleges, 32 players, one official and 25 fixers and material witnesses.

The list of schools was increased by one Wednesday and one was added to the group of material witnesses when Sam D. Feinberg, 39, former Cincinnati sports promoter, was held in $10,000 bond as a would be briber of two University of Cincinnati players.

The Cincinnati players, however, were praised in General Sessions Court for turning down the bribes. They were Alvin Rubenstein and Jack Laub.

A sworn statement read by Assistant District Attorney Vincent A. G. O'Connor said Feinberg asked Rubenstein and Laub to

Firmco, Eagles Remain Tied For Kegling Lead

Firmco and Eagles remained deadlocked in a struggle for first place in the Industrial Bowling League Wednesday night as both polished off opponents without a hitch.

Even the scores were almost identical. Firmco blanked Vets Hospital by leveling 2,785 pins, and POE gave the same treatment to Roseburg Laundry by a score of 2,781. P. Oederkirk of BPOE rolled the high 243 individual game and Dan Hansen of the Lions raked up a 616 series. The best team series was Shell Oil's 2,793. Elks' 1,004 was the high team game.
