Patsy Wahl Becomes Bride Of Dean Weekly

Patsy Wahl, of Coos Bay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Wahl, of Sutherlin, became the bride of Dean Weekly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roland Weekly of Myrtle Point, at an impressive ceremony Jan. 20, at the Methodist Church in Sutherlin with Rev. Robert Fell performing the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock before 100 relatives and friends.

Baskets of pink and white carnations and pink and white satin aisle ribbons with candelabra at the altar formed the decorations for the church.

The bride given in marriage by her father, was charming in a white gown with low bodice, tulle skirt, with over skirt of net. She carried an orchid on a white ribbon. Her fingertip veil was held by a Juliet cap of seed pearls.

Mrs. Erma Horst at the organ accompanied Miss Kay and Dixie Lucas, who sang "Always" and "Because."

Beverly Baird, a friend of the bride, was maid of honor and wore an aqua tulle and net gown and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations. Jessie Oulver of Sutherlin and Dolores Martin of Portland, were bridesmaids. Jessie wore a pink tulle and net gown and Dolores an orchid tulle with overskirt of net and both carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations.

The bride chose a teal blue suit, with black accessories for traveling. After a short honeymoon to northern points the couple will be at home to their friends after Jan. 27 at Coquille.

Mrs. Dean Weekly was a graduate of Sutherlin High School in 1949 and graduated recently from OTI at Klamath Falls and is now a medical technician.

Dean Weekly graduated from Myrtle Point High, attended Oregon State College and spent four years in the Marines. He then entered ITI at Klamath Falls and had two months to finish, when he was called back in the reserves. He served one year in Korea and only returned to Myrtle Point Christmas Eve. He is now employed by Coos Bay Lbr. Co.

A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. The table was covered by a white linen cutwork table cloth centered with a four-tiered wedding cake, which was decorated in pink and white, circled with pink roses with candelabra.

Mrs. Reva Bennett, sister of the bride, presided at the coffee urn, and Mrs. Anna Parry, sister of bridegroom, served the punch. Out-of-town guests were: Mrs. J. H. White, Gaston, Ore., grandmother of the bride; Mr. and Mrs. Max Powers, Coquille; Mr. and Mrs. William Parry, Myrtle Point, brother-in-law and sister of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Peden, Corvallis, Ore., cousin of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Gene Wells, Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Glass, Coos Bay; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Horst, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilson, Sitka, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Alcorn, Carlton, Ore.; Mr. and Mrs. Roland Weekly, parents of the bridegroom; Myrtle Point; Kay and Dixie Lucas, Eugene; Miss Dolores Martin, Portland; Mrs. Joe Wright, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Bennie Bennett and family of Springfield, a sister of the bride.

Winner Of Contest

Janice Marie Smith, five-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Smith of Dillard is a very popular little girl these days. She won the grand prize Saturday, Jan. 5, for naming the Chief's dog on the ranger program coming from Phoenix, Ariz. Chief Savum Wampus sent Janice the following telegram "Ugh! You Heap Big Winner of 'Ranger Name The Chief's Dog Contest.' Me Sending prizes, Dog like name of 'Little Growing Buck.'"

Janice listens to all of the children's programs and she was barely able to print the name of "Little Growing Buck," her own suggestion, with her mother's help. She has received further information that her prizes will be a Cocker Spaniel puppy with a year's supply of Ideal Dog Food, a gas model airplane and a beautiful Schwinn bicycle.

Janice attends regularly the Dillard Sunday School. Mr. and Mrs. Smith and daughter, Janice, and two-year-old son, Jimmy Loren, have lived up Kent Creek in Dillard, since last March. The father works for the Dillard Holt's sawmill.
