THE WISE-WELTON WEDDING PARTY, above, pose for a photograph following the impressive ceremony Dec. 14 when JoAn Marie Welton became the bride of Paul Emery Wise. In the lower photo the bride and bridegroom cut the first piece of their three-tiered wedding cake. (Pictures by Clark's Studio)

JoAn Marie Welton Bride Of Paul Wise

JoAn Marie Welton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Welton of Roseburg, became the bride of Paul Emery Wise, son of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Wise of Roseburg, Dec. 14 at the First Christian Church in Roseburg.

Rev. Ray Kleinfeldt performed the impressive ceremony which took place on the wedding anniversary date of the bride's parents.

The traditional wedding marches were played on the organ by Mrs. George Trued.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a white satin gown with a lace bodice. She wore white mitts and a viel of illusion with lillies of the valley. Her corsage was an orchid.

Billy Jo McCoy of Portland, Ore., was the maid of honor and was gowned in a gold taffeta dress.

Bridesmaids included: Charlotte Wise and Elva Welton who wore plae green and pale yellow taffeta gowns.

The flower girl was Juanita Welton who was dressed in gold taffeta and carried pale lavender and white chrysanthemums. Edwin Welton acted as ring bearer and carried a small white nylon pillow trimmed in lace.

Earl Bock, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, was best man while Charles Ferguson, Herbert Welton and Jerry Lee were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe dress and black shoes. She had a corsage of pale lavender chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Wise wore a blue crepe dress with a grey coat. Her corsage was of yellow chrysanthemums.

Out-of-town guests included: Mrs. Frank Sutliff of Philomatt, Ore., Miss Yvone Kamrath, Corvallis; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boch Sr., Azalia and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Boch Jr., Azalia.

A reception followed the services in the church parlors. Cake and coffee were served and the bride and bridegroom opened many gifts.

For traveling to Eugene, where the couple spent a short honeymoon, the bride chose a black and white checkered dress with green accessories.

Upon their return they will be at home three miles east of Dixonville

The bride is a student at the Glide Senior High School and the bridegroom is employed at the Wise Lumber Company.

Associated Business Women's Club Meets

The first order of business for the Associated Business Women's club was the installation of officers for the ensuing year, when they met Monday evening at the William Blakely home of East Fourth Avenue in Sutherlin.

The installing officers, Mrs. John Chase and Mrs. Dee Atterbury, seated the following officers and presented each with beautiful carnation corsages; Mrs. William Blakely, president; Mrs. C. J. Bielman, vice president; Mrs. Harold Pond, secretary; Mrs. Delores Jackson, treasurer, and Mrs. Fred Waugh, trustee for a three - year term.

The retiring officers each were presented with a gift from the club in appreciation for the splendid work that they had accomplished in the past year.

The treasurer's report was read and accepted. The park committee reported the park board would like the club to decide on what they were going to do for the park. The decision was tabled until next meeting as exact particulars were not available. Miss Carol Sue Hunt was admitted as a member of the club.

Mrs. Bielman, chairman of the community Christmas treats, announced she would like the club to appoint their representative and an alternate so that when a meeting was called, the club would be represented. Mrs. Anita Swartz, was appointed with Miss Luella Pleuard as alternate.

It was voted that the executive committee take care of any important business that might come up between meetings.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the Bielman home west of Sutherlin with Mrs. Bielman, Mrs. Chase, Mrs. Waugh and Mrs. Holgate as hostesses.

A social hour was enjoyed after the meeting and the hidden article game was won by Mrs. Holgate with the consolation prize being awarded to Mrs. Chase. Mrs. Slack won the door prize.

At the close of the evening the hostesses, Mrs. William Blakeley, Mrs. Jack Culver Sr., Mrs. Arthur Correll and Miss Betty Musgrove served refreshments to the following visitors: Mrs. C. A. Pethrick and Miss Arlene Nelson. Members present were: Mrs. William Crowell, Mrs. Henry Halverson Sr., Mrs. Lyle Smith, Mrs. Dolores Jackson, Mrs. Dave Pichette, Mrs. John Chase, Mrs. C. J. Bielman, Miss Luella Pleuard, Mrs. Ralph Anderson, Mrs. Harold Pond, Mrs. Vern Holgate, Mrs. Fred Waugh, Mrs. Brittain Slack, Mrs. Lon Welsh, Mrs. Anita Swartz, Miss Carol Sue Hunt, Mrs. Dee Atterbury, Mrs. John Buchanan and Mrs. Dorcas Hoagland.

GLENN LEUNING TO TEACH VOICE AT HEINLINE SCHOOL

Mrs. C. S. Heinline has announced that Glen Leuning has joined her School of Music in the Legion Hall as a voice teacher Mr. Leuning recently came to Roseburg from Seattle, where he was a teacher of voice in public schools and at present is with the Bob Doty Music Shop.

Mr. Leuning was graduated from Central Washington College of Education and took private study with Grace Terhune Huston, Yakima, Wash., and member of NATS. He later studied under the late Dr. Crittenden in Los Angeles and then studied with D. W. PrePhame, professor of voice at Furnman University, Greenville, S. C., and took graduate study in voice under Martha Dick McClung, Birmingham Conservatory of Music, at Birmingham, Ala.

Those interested in studying voice under Mr. Leuning can contact him personally at Bob Doty's Music Shop or may call the Heinline School of Music at 3-4410.

XI EPSILON CHAPTER MEETING IS ENJOYED AT TOZIER HOME TUESDAY

Xi Epsilon Chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Bud Tozier. Mrs. B. A. Saar, president, conducted the business session.

It was announced that the Alpha Iota Chapter will hold the annual sweetheart ball Feb. 15 at the Roseburg Country Club. All members of Beta Sigma Phi Chapters and their guests are urged to attend this dance. Mrs. Charles Hart was chosen to represent Xi Epsilon Chapter in the sweetheart contest.

Mrs. M. C. Bowker gave a very interesting program on the "Mexican Dance." Later in the evening, Mrs. Tozier, assisted by Mrs. Ray Brown, served delicious refreshments to: Mrs. B. A. Saar, Mrs. Charles Hart, Mrs. Clair K. Allen, Mrs. J. R. Wharton, Mrs. Roger Cochran, Mrs. Benjamin Du Fresne, Mrs. Sidney Moon, Mrs. M. C. Bowker and Mrs. Norton.

The next meeting will be Feb. 12 at the home of Mrs. Wharton. Miss Virginia Young will have charge of the program on "Mexican Literature." All members are urged to be present.

Birthday Party Held By Roseburg Chapter

Roseburg Chapter, Order of Eastern Star, held its regular meeting and its 66th birthday party Jan. 17, with Beatrice Churchill, Worthy Matron, presiding. The East was decorated with a large star with the five colors and a large birthday cake in the center with the dates of 1886 and 1952 on either side.

Mrs. Maude Kidder, who was formerly a member of Roseburg Chapter, was escorted to the East and presented with an honorary membership. She holds a life membership in Manila, Philippines.

Leila Wimberly, Associate Grand Matron of the Grand Chapter of Oregon, was escorted to the East.

Flossie Virden and Eva Abraham were escorted to the East, and with Mrs. Kidder, were presented as fifty-year members. Mrs. Marietta Kohlhagen and Belle Horner, who is at present a member of St. Mary's Chapter at Corvallis, who were unable to be present, were acknowledged as charter members.

Gladys Wiley, Junior Past Matron, and Ray B. Hapton, Junior Past Patron, were escorted to the east.

The Chapter was entertained by three violin solos by Mrs. Leon Mulkey, accompanied by Myrtle Burr; by a French artist's version of a chalk talk by Rev. W. A. MacArthur; and by an addendum by the courtesy girls depicting the fashions of 1886 and 1952.

Lovely homemade cakes and coffee were served by the committee composed of Clayte Osborn, Ruth Patterson, Cleo Hiatt, Ethel Finlay, Florence Plummer, Nellie Patrick, Ina Bubar, Margaret Pfaff and Dora Ritzman.

Yellow jasmine and green and yellow candles graced the table, which was also decorated with yellow and green paper streamers.

At the next meeting, Feb. 7, Leila Wimberly will make her official visit to the Chapter and conduct a school of instruction. The officers will meet at Carl's Haven at a six o'clock no-hostess dinner.

Committees Appointed At Rebekah Meeting

Mrs. Minnie South and Mrs. Ada Hanna, recently installed as noble grand and vice grand respectively, opened the second regular meeting of the month of the Roseburg Rebekah Lodge Tuesday night at the IOOF Hall. Other officers present were: Financial Secretary, Bernice Ellis, Treasurer, Etta Rogers; Warden, Kay Snyder; Conductor, Kay Simmons; Color Bearer, Alice Hornbuckle; Inside Guardian, Thelma Fleshman; Outside Guardina, Thella Weber; RSNG, Ruth Plummer; RSVG, Maggie Dent; LSVG, Fay Jensen, and Chaplain, Betty Neuriter. Forty three members and one visitor were present. Twenty of these members werre Past Noble Grands

One application for membership was read The applications of Tina Hoffmeister, Beatrice W. Adams and Blanch Harvin were accepted. All Rebekahs were requested to send a card to the lodge's "adopted sister," Mrs. Katherine Bingman, in the IOOF Home in Portland, 32nd and Holgate streets. Mrs. Bingman was reported as having been quite ill recently.

A talk on flag etiquette in a Rebekah Lodge was given by Ruth Plumer. Exemplification of admission to a lodge in this jurisdiction was given by Velma Herman. Visiting a lodge in another jurisdiction was discussed by Mrs. Ethel Bailey assisted by Ruth Plumer, Velma Herman, Vivian Logsdon and Thelma Fleshman in the demonstration.

By vote of those present it was decided to continue with the "sack lunch" this next term. On those nights when refreshments are not served by a committee members bring their own sandwich, cookie or doughnut as they choose. Coffee is provided by the lodge. A "sack lunch" is in order for the next meeting, Feb. 12.

Other business consumated included the appointment of the following committees for the current term: Finance: Ada Hanna, Fletcher Gardner, Hattie Guerin; Visiting, Maggie Dent, Ollie Krueger, Hattie Guerin, Jack Dent and Fay Clark; Courtesy: Susie Jackson, Blanch Marr, Tillie Johnson, and Ethel Bailey, Good of the Order: Nona Thompson; Education, Gertrude Hatfield; Card and Flowers, Ona Williams; Press Correspondent, Vivian Logsdon; Fraternal Press, Esther Burr; Community Service, Florence Klatt, Mildred Gardner, Vivian Pasmore; Membership, Kay Snyder, Etta Rogers. Also appointed was a special committee to act with the Rebekah Lodge trustees and Philtarian Lodge trustees in regard to auditing records preparatory to payment of dividends to shareholders in the IOOF Hall. Appointed were: Ona Williams, Tillie Johnson and Alice Goff.

The degree staff captain, Mrs. Ollie Krueger, announced degree staff practise for Wednesday night, Jan. 30, at 7:30 o'clock sharp. Following the meeting refreshments of coffee and cake were served in the dining room by Thella Weber, Helen Hebard. The cakes were furnished by Mildred Garder, Minnie South and Ada Hanna.

All Rebekahs either living here or visiting here are cordially invited to visit the Roseburg Rebekan Lodge at any time.

TOASTMISTRESS CLUB MEMBERS, above, attending the installation dinner meeting Wednesday evening included, left to right: Margaret Reece, Marilyn West, Valyn Malstead, Audrey Barker, Elynor Massey, Bertha Austin, Ella Gilpin, Marjorie Roach, Editha Ritchie, Dorothy Sorensen, Lillian Du Fresne, Ethel Fisher, Erica Graham, Celia Day, Louise Hayes, Blanche Parker, Anne Patty, Hilda Peterson and Elsa Hunter. Below, Mrs. Patty, out-going president, and Mrs. Day, in-coming president, are photographed with the birthday cake. (Pictures by Paul Jenkins)

ROSEBURG TOASTMISTRESS CLUB INSTALLATION DINNER HELD WEDNESDAY

The Roseburg Toatmistress Club annual installation dinner was a very lovely affair of Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Hunter 126 W. Lane Street. A social time was enjoyed from six-thirty to seven o'clock.

The tables were beautifully arranged with gold leaves, deep blue ribbons and ivory tapers. The dinner was served at seven o'clock.

Anne Patty, president opened the business session with Valyn Malstead giving the invocation. The table topic mistress was Elsa Hunter. Toatmistress was Louise Hayes, who introduced the speaker for the evening, Marjorie Roach, who gave her "ice-breaker." Editha Ritchie was evaluator for the evening.

Lillian Du Fresne was installing officer. Mrs. Du Fresne is a past president of the Roseburg Toastmistress Club. A lovely corsage was presented to her preceding the ceremony. Mrs. Du Fresne presented a corsage to the officers as they were installed and included Celia Day, president; Editha Ritchie, vice president; Marjorie Roach, treasurer and Blanche Parker, secretary. Blue and gold tapers were lighted during the installation ceremony.

Ericka Graham, treasurer, and Anne Patty president (the latter received a past president's pin and corsage) were thanked for their work as officers for the last wo terms.

Elsa Hunter was the most charming hostess for the occasion and presented the attractive president's cake, which is a tradition of the club Mrs. Day, newly installed president, closed the meeting.

MR. AND MRS. RICE ENTERTAIN WITH A DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. Abner Rice Sr. entertained with a charming dinner party at the family home on Willis Creek, Thursday evening.

Dinner was served in their spacious dining room at 6 o'clock. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Flagler and children, Kay and "Tuffy"; Mr. and Mrs. William C. Heinbach, Ina Lee and Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Hoy Rice and Illis Fay. Mrs. Beullah Egger, Mrs. Sadie Sheridan and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Rice.

An enjoyable evening was spent viewing the home movies by Jack Flagler and Warren Heinbach.

ALPHA THETA CHAPTER HAS RECENT MEETING

Mrs. Jim Decker was hostess to her sorority chapter, the Alpha Theta Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Tuesday evening at her home on Terrace Avenue.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. Jack Cummins, and the many Christmas projects were discussed. The chapter distributed baskets containing food, clothing and toys for children.

The president of City Council, Mrs. Don Gum, was present as a guest. She and the charter representatives of City Council told of the items under discussion. One was an exchange of members between the local chapters in order to get the different Beta Sigma Phi members better acquainted.

Each chapter has chosen a community project to work on. This year, the Alpha Theta Chapter chose the March of Dimes campaign. Mr. Jim Davis, representing Bob McCarl, was guest speaker, and outlined a program in which the chapter could help in this worthy project. It was decided that Saturday, Jan. 26, the Chapter would participate in an uptown drive, details of which will be announced later.

Mrs. Jim Coon presented a most interesting talk on "Poise and Charm," containing many illustrations, and was enjoyed by everyone.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Jim Decker, and the co-hostesses, Mrs. Byron Smith and Mrs. Nat Butler to: Mrs. Jack Cummins, Mrs. Bob Harris, Mrs. Donivan Wright Mrs. Art Rich, Mrs. Walter Fisher, Mrs. W. E. Lindgren, Mrs. Meredith Wilson, Mrs. Bert Shoemaker, Mrs. Jim Coon, Mrs. Stewart Smith, Mrs. Charles Woodrich, Mrs. George McIntosh and guest, Mrs. Don Gum.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. George McIntosh at 212 Alameda Street, Jan. 22.

GARDEN VALLEY WOMEN'S CLUB HAS INTERESTING MEETING ON THURSDAY

The Garden Valley Women's Club met at the clubhouse Thursday afternoon with Mrs. F. G. Ewens and Mrs. John Sinclair as co-hostesses. Plans were completed for the polio benefit chili supper. Announcement was made of the Home Extension meeting on Sewing Machine Attachments at the Grange Hall. It was also announced that the T. B. X-ray unit will be at the Riversdale schoolhouse Jan. 29 and 30 in the afternoon hours.

The tables were beautifully decorated with yellow and green tapers and yellow roses. Refreshments were served to the following members and guests: Mrs. Ethel Bashford, Mrs. E. S. Booth, Mrs. Ethel Bussell, Mrs. Katherine Ewens, Mrs. Georgia Edmonds, Mrs. J. C. Guthrie, Mrs. Clara Hess, Mrs. Sina Johnson, Mrs. H. M. Knapp, Mrs. U. F. M Laughlin, Mrs. Cliff McKay, Mrs. O. F. Michel, Mrs. Wilma Pon, Mrs. R. W. Fielding, Mrs. Pete Sinclair, Mrs. C. L. Spray, Mrs. Emmett Walters, Mrs. Ray Young, Mrs. R. C. Laurance, Mrs. Joe Toman, Mrs. Goldagger, Mrs. Ethel Wagoner, Mrs. Virgil Woodruff, Mrs. Clem Schneider, Mrs. Carl Schmidt and the hostesses, Mrs. F. G. Ewens and Mrs. John Sinclair.

PTA PENNY SUPPER IS SUCCESSFUL

The penny supper, sponsored by the Lookingglass PTA Friday evening, was a big success both from a financial and social standpoint. The committee in charge has expressed their thanks to the patronage of the public.

Following te supper, motion pictures were shown under the

SEE and PRICE WORLD BOOK ENCYCLOPEDIA
before purchasing other sets.
Childcraft for small children also available
MARTHA WISHART, Ph. 3-4275

BOB HALL HONORED AT 30TH BIRTHDAY PART Y

Robert (Bob) Hall was honored with a delightful birthday potluck dinner Saturday evening at the Vern Holgate home on East Third Avenue, when a group gathered together to honor "Bob" on his 80th birthday. The linen-covered table was centered with a lovely centerpiece, flanked by tall lighted tapers and also a beautifully decorated birthday cake.

Covers were placed for the guest of honor, Bob Hall; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Varrelmann, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Holgate, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Haviland, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Luchterhand, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Holgate, and daughter, Arlene, Miss Gloria Stilt, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Holgate and son, Gordon.

The evening was spent playing cards.

PATCH AND CHAT CLUB IS ENTERTAINED AT HOME OF MRS. J. N. BOOR

Mrs. J. N. Boor graciously entertained the Patch and Chat Club Tuesday evening at her home. Mrs. Helen Kasparie was a guest and members present were: Mrs. C. J. Bartlett, Mrs. E. R. Buckingham, Mrs. Curtis Calkins, Mrs. E. G. Trozelle, Mrs. Darley Ware, Mrs. Fern Wood, Mrs. C. Domenico, Mrs. D. W. Keasey Sr., Mrs. E. H. Verrell, Mrs. Gordon Ware and the hostess, Mrs. Boor.

Mrs. Gordon Ware assisted Mrs. Boor in serving lovely refreshments following the social hour.

The next meeting will be Feb. 12 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Buckingham.

JEFFREY DILLEY CELEBRATES FOURTH BIRTHDAY AT PARTY

Jeffrey Dilley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dilley, celebrated his fourth birthday (which occurred Jan. 20) at his home at 1057 Military Street Saturday at a most delightful luncheon party. Mrs. Dilley was assisted by Mrs. Lyle Miller.

The serving table was centered with a gumdrop tree and "Frosty the Snowman" candles. Following the luncheon, the beautifully decorated birthday cake was served with ice-cream, after which the many birthday gifts were opened.

Enjoying the party with Jeffrey were his sister, Janet and Mike Hill, Steve Hamm, Doug Norlin, Billy Miller, Sana Jane Bridges, Linda Miller and Mary Miller.

DRESSMAKING ALTERATIONS
ZOE NEWMAN
925 Cobb St. Dial 3-7125

NEW DANCING CLASS FOR HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
STARTS MONDAY, JANUARY 28th
7:30 to 9:30 P.M.
WALTZ, FOXTROT, CHARLESTON
RALPH PATTERSON'S
ROSEBURG SCHOOL OF DANCING
120 North Kane Phone 3-3423