$300 Million US Grant Bolsters British Defense

WASHINGTON UN-Dollar short Britain is being given an emer-gency 300 million dollar slice of Mutual Security funds to prevent a threatened cutback of its defense

The grant was announced Mon-day night by Mutual Security Di-rector W. Averell Harriman, who said that without it Britain would be forced to reduce its contribution to the Western arms buildup by twice as much.

The money will be used up to July 1 to buy "raw materials and components" which have to be paid for in dollars. The purchases will be made largely in the United States.

The action came less than two weeks after Prime Minister Churchill assured Congress "I have not come here to ask you for money."

In The Armed

Wave Recruit Given Leave

Miss McClintock enlisted last November and was a member of the first WAVE company to graduate from the new training center at Bainbridge, Md. Her recruit training covered such phases of Navy indoctrination as aircraft recognition, Naval lore, job classification and swimming. She is now enrolled in the Yeoman Service School at Bainbridge where she will receive instructions in clerical and secretarial duties. Upon completion of the course, she will be assigned to a naval base for duty, and has stated she hopes it will be in the vicinity of her brother's station, who is also in the Navy.

Miss McClintock graduated from Myrtle Creek High School last year, and prior to enlisting was employed by Dairy Queen in Myrtle Creek.

VFW Plans Meeting

The Presidential Rose—what surprises will the party conventions bring? Who'll win on Nov. 47 What'll it mean to foreign policy, business, labor the cost of living?

If strikes are called-will they tie up the defense effort? Hit your business, transportation or food?

Will these be 1952's biggest stories?

You do no move But you do know that when they break, right that minute you'll want your newspaper.

Where else can you get the whole story so fast? So close to the event-so full of fact, detail and color ... so quick with answers to "what led up to it?" and "what do they say about it?" and "where do we go from here?"

There's some story nearly every day that hits you like that. So you want your newspaper as you want food and air.

You share that basic, essential hunger with everybody else. Your own suspense may be tied to the banner headlines ... somebody else's may hang on a special in the white sales. But sometime each day everybody wants to see the newspaper. It's one thing people won't do without.

· Why do advertisers spend more of their money in newspapers than in any other form of advertising?

Simply because everybody reads the newspaper every day-for its advertising as well as for fun or for news.

So-if you're selling something that's advertised, why should it be advertised to fractions of the people?

Redie and TV programs reach only fractions of anybody's market. Each one appeals to only a special audience. Any even the people interested can't all listen.

Mogazines reach only fractions of a market. For each one appeals to some peoplenot to others.

or talks to everybouv in town. It's created fresh every day to appeal to everybody. Just as you read the paper now, all your customers and prospects read the paper too-at the times they choose, for as long as they choose!

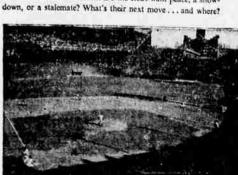

Only the newspaper is first with the most news... first with the most people... first with the most advertisers!

Will the wor end in Korea? Do the Reds want peace, a show

What medical discovery will be news in '52? Will another "incurable" disease be conquered?

The World Series-will the Giants need seeth in? Will this be the year to down the mighty Yanks?
