Alger Hiss Asks For Third Trial

NEW YORK (AP)—Alger Hiss has asked for a re-trial based on what he says is new evidence that he can prove he told the truth when he said he did not give American secrets to a pre-war Russian spy ring.

The one-time top State Department aide appealed Thursday for a third trial. The jury in his first trial was dismissed when it could not agree. The second trial resulted in a five-year sentence.

Hiss said he had new facts to back up his defense that he was convicted partly by typewriter forgery.

And he attacked key testimony of Whittaker Chambers, self-styled courier for the spy ring, and a second trial surprise witness who identified himself as Chambers' former maid.

At both trials the government contended Hiss used a battered old Woodstock typewriter to copy State Department documents and gave copies to Chambers.

It was generally accepted there at the trials that each typewriter had unmistakable traits of its own.

But Hiss' motion said engineers had built him a special typewriter that would type just like the old one.

By LORETTA OLESON

Miss Minnie Ziegler, who was in California working during the past several months, flew to Hawaii. She arrived in Honolulu Jan. 19 where she found employment taking care of children in an orphan home. She plans tentatively to stay a year or so. She is remembered as the cousin of Mrs. Dorothy Oleson.

A fire in the kitchen of Leslie Crane's home was started accidentally Sunday, Jan. 20. There was considerable smoke damage in the kitchen and other rooms but the fire was quickly put out by Jack Wilkenson, who received minor burns on his hands and was taken to the hospital. Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wilkenson and baby were visiting Leslie Crane at the time. Other visitors during the day were Mr. and Mrs. Gilmore, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson and family, and Mr. and Mrs. William Johnson Sr., all of Springfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Willis Booher are
