Mata And Hari, Dancers, Dated Here February 11

February 11 is announced as the date for the appearance here of Mata and Hari and their dance company, a presentation of Columbia Artists management in co-operation with the Roseburg Community Concert association.

They will appear at the Senior High School Auditorium at 8:15 p.m., instead of at the Junior High, in order that they may take advantage of the larger stage facilities for their dance acts, said Miss Gladys V. Strong, president of the Roseburg association.

The appearance here of this comedy dance team, longtime concert favorites and now a top attraction on television, marks the third in the winter series of four Community Concert presentations.

Court Upholds Contract For Purchase Of Land

Right to rescind a contract for purchase of a ranch and equipment was denied William A. and Cecelia Schuler in a Circuit Court decree Wednesday.

The Schulers had filed suit against Carlyle H. and Gladys E. Humphrey, alleging misrepresentation of the property they had contracted to purchase.

Judge Carl E. Wimberly said the contract was valid and ordered the plaintiffs to pay $27,500 remaining due on the property.

The State Bureau of Labor filed suit in Circuit Court Wednesday charging that Les M. Withee and A. V. Logsdon owe a total of $2,250.06 to two men who worked for them.

Oil Representative Loses Wallet In Roseburg Area

R. R. Batton, Union Oil Co representative, reports the loss of his wallet sometime Tuesday. He said the wallet is had carved with saddle stitching.

Batton is currently staying at the Hotel Umpqua, but all papers in the wallet have his Los Angeles address. It contained more than $100 in currency, his last month's pay check, driver's license and other personal cards and papers, in addition to personal checks.

He said he has notified the local police and banks. He said the purse, if found, could be returned to him at the hotel or to local police.

Melrose Horizon Girls March On Polio Tonight

High school girls will also march on polio tonight.

In the Melrose area, the Horizon Girls, a high school organization, will be callers from 6:30 to 7:30 in a campaign to collect funds for the fight against polio.

Residents are again reminded to have their porch lights burning to indicate that a donation for the fund is awaiting the girls.

Roseburg Folk Dancers Will Practice Tonight

The Roseburg International Folk Dance group will meet for practice tonight at 8 o'clock in the new Women's Club Building. This will be the last practice before Mrs. Pirkko Roecker's class, which will be held Saturday evening, Feb. 2. All members of the Roseburg group and those interested in international folk dancing are asked to come.

On Saturday night Mrs. Roecker, former head of the department of dance at the University of Oregon, will come down from Eugene for two hours of instruction, bringing with her some of the members of the Eugene International Folk Dancers. Following instruction and dancing Saturday evening, refreshments will be served.

Anyone interested in international folk dancing is asked to call Mrs. Audrey Lindell, 3-7004.

SENTENCED — Denis W. Delaney (above) appears to be forcing a smile as he leaves Federal Court in Boston after receiving a two-year sentence following his conviction on tax bribe charges. Delaney, ousted by President Truman as Collector of Internal Revenue for Massachusetts, was also fined $10,500 and continued in $2,500 bail pending an appeal. (AP WIRE-PHOTO)
