School was a film and tape recording titled "Fishers of Men" shown by the Rev. Mr. Hall.

The Rev. R. G. Hall was elected to the general assembly, Presbyterian Conference, USA by the Presbytery of Southwestern Oregon. Meetings of the conference will be held in New York City in May.

George Murphy, state assistant steward for Oregon Grange visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Croft Thursday, Jan. 24. Mrs. Thelma Larson attended the meeting of the Anchor PTA Monday night. The organization met to make plans for the folk dances and moving pictures that will be held in the district within the next few weeks.

School in District 127 was not held one day last week because of the heavy snow. The bus schedule has been resumed now though.

An order has been placed by Ruth Chambers for another traveling library. Cecile Chambers is local librarian for the traveling library.

Found Dead With Head In 50-Gal. Water Drum

VANCOUVER, Wash. (AP)—Ten minutes after he set out for the barn on his farm near here Tuesday, Candido Abotiz, 61, was found dead, his head slumped into water in a 50 gallon drum. The man apparently had col-

By MRS. ILA QUIRKE

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Jones, Glendale, were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kemp Sunday, Jan. 27. Mr. Jones is in charge of the Glendale phone exchange. He has a new switchboard and a pay booth for public use.

Logging resumed Monday after a two week shutdown because of the heavy snows. The snow is melting slowly, and if it continues in this manner, there will be no high water.

Mr. Vera Kemp made a business trip to Salem Monday and returned Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Wendroth of Azalea made a business trip to Eugene.

Paul Bremington missed several days of school because of tonsillitis.

Mr. Bell has acquired a piece of land on which he plans to build. The land is near the bridge on Russle Creek.

Word was received from Mrs. Milly Spaulding that her health is much improved. A former resident of Cow Creek since 1924, she now resides at Medford.

A feature of Galesville Sunday

PVT. ROBERT S. SURKAMER, above, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Surkamer, spent last weekend visiting friends and relatives here. He has been in Fort Warden, Wash., since February of last year with the 81st Engineers Division, and is to report back to Fort Warden for overseas duty.

Auto Thieves Take All But Body, 2 Ash Trays

MARBLEHEAD, Mass. (AP)—Apparently the men who stole Elmer Davis' car last Thursday don't smoke.

All that was found of the car Sunday was the body and two ashtrays.

Removed by the thieves were: Engine, wheels, drive shaft, transmission, seats, dashboard, spare tire, battery, wiring, lights and accessories.

KRNR

SKI ENTHUSIASTS... hear a special interview tonight, at 10:30, when Bob Grant will have in the studio as his guests: Allan Knudson; George Korn, operator of the Willamette Pass Ski Bowl on highway 58, out of Oakridge; Jack Smith; Bill Cummins of the Forestry Dept., and Dolph James of KORE, Eugene. Sit in on their discussion of skiing, and hear things of interest about skiing in this area. Bob Grant is one of many local people who have been making the trip every week-end to the ski-bowl.

ADVENTURES OF CASANOVA comes your way tonight, as it does every Thursday night at 7:00. Errol Flynn (Casanova) has a sure-fire way of getting an extra lift into his voice for the romantic bits on his programs. Mrs. Flynn, known to film fans as Patrice Wymore, sits out each broadcast in the control room. The studio crew refers to the titan-haired beauty as "the gal who tames Don Juan."

GLENN LEUNING sings again following Casanova. Hear Glenn and his pianist bring their song-stylings direct from the studio of KRNR. Ballads, the semi-classics, are his specialty. Send your requests for the program care of KRNR. That's tonight at 7:30. TOMORROW night at 8:00, "Re-
