

J C Cagers Take Over AAU Lead

Low-Pressure Football Loop Gets Backing

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Glenn C. "Finy" Hartranft, athletic director of San Jose State College Thursday proposed a conference of seven independents to play low-pressure football starting in 1953.

His proposal would return the sport to four or more Pacific Coast schools which have dropped football in the past two or three years.

Hartranft would "eliminate rather than minimize ailments of intercollegiate football."

Essence of the plan is non-subsidized, low-budget football that would not bid for huge stadia or inter-sectional game crowds of 90,000.

Would Include

The conference would include seven of these nine schools: San Jose State, College of Pacific, U. of Nevada, Loyola of Los Angeles, St. Mary's, San Francisco, Santa Clara, Portland, Ore., University and Gonzaga of Spokane, Wash. Only San Jose, COP and Santa Clara still are fielding grid teams.

"I have been encouraged by virtually all of these schools to proceed," Hartranft said. "My job is to get specific commitments so we can start play in 1953."

He said he has run into some opposition from board of athletic control members who "are too proud to play the type of football I'm proposing."

Hartranft said the schools must seek their own financial level and revolutionize their ideas of good football.

Results for the Butte Valley squad will be released after they have been checked next week. Results from last week's telegraphic affair showed the Roseburg club won a two-point victory over the strong Bay Rifle Club. The score was 1,498 to 1,496.

Again Harold Beauchamp was the high individual shooter last night with a 382. This total was posted in the prone, sitting, overhand and kneeling positions. He shot a perfect 100 in the sitting position. Small Margin Divides Players

NEW YORK (AP) — The first three basketball scorers among the small colleges are separated by just three tenths of a percentage point, according to figures released Thursday by the National Collegiate Athletic Bureau.

Harm Hoffman of Brooklyn Poly, who has not played for two weeks because of exams, still heads the parade with an average of 27.0. But he's followed closely by John O'Brien of Seattle with 26.8 and Earl Wentzel of Penn Military with 26.7. The figures include games through last Saturday.

O'Brien has been hot on Hoffman's trail all season, and last week, he had two chances to overtake the leader. But he was held to 52 points and his average went down a fraction of a point.

Wentzel, however, was a big surprise. He swished 48 points through the hoop against Delaware, then found the range for 44 more against Kings. His 48 markers against Delaware constitute a small college season record.

Yoncalla's Fast Leads Scorers

As expected, Yoncalla's Bill Fast moved into the North half "B" League basketball scoring lead. He scored 33 points against Oakland last weekend to forge ahead of Drain's George Kelly who dropped to third.

Don Vest took over the second spot. The biggest noise in the North Half, was Elkton's John Beckley, who rang up 22 points in his team's whopping 83-37 victory over Glide last Friday. This moved him into the standings and up to fifth place.

In the South Half, John Rigby dropped over a point on his average, but continued to pace the South half scorers. He was being pressed closely by Ronnie Defferding, Camas Valley's only scoring threat.

Jack Loomis Sparks Team To Tiger Win

J C Sporting Goods, with Jack Loomis in the vanguard, turned on the steam at Benson Grade School gym Wednesday night to roll over Yoncalla's Tigers, 76-65. The win gave the J Cs undisputed first place.

It was a long haul for the Roseburg squad which is defending the championship this year. The J Cs were always close, but never succeeded in climbing to the top over a seven-game route until last night. Yoncalla has led all season and won five consecutive games before faltering before Oakland two weeks ago, 51-50. The J C loss was the second straight setback for the powerful Tigers.

In spite of the ragged characteristics and disappointing refereeing of the game, the two teams combined to run up the biggest aggregate score this year.

Tight Battle Fought

It was a tight battle through the first half. Roseburg took an 18-14 first half. Roseburg took an 18-14 first half. Roseburg took an 18-14 first half. Roseburg took an 18-14 first half.

Sutherlin YMCA Quint Hosts Oakland Squad

Sutherlin expects to prove a point Friday night as the YMCA Adult Leaguers host the Oakland AAU squad in a basketball tilt in the new Sutherlin gym.

It has been tagged as a "grudge" battle for no particular reason except the towns are neighboring, so are, of course, friendly rivals. It might also prove the caliber of competition in the respective leagues. Anyway, the game is scheduled for 8 p.m. at Sutherlin.

GAMES LISTED TONIGHT

The following games are listed for play tonight at the Benson Grade School gym:
Umpqua Plywood vs. Montgomery Ward, 7 p.m.; Sutherlin "Y" vs. J C Sporting Goods, 8 p.m.; Donut Bar vs. Christian Church, 9 p.m.

Elting Continues To Pace Cagers

District 5 Scoring Leaders Eastern Division

J. Rose (Reedsport)	8	11	23	8.7	8.7

Two men dropped off the list of top sub-district 5 scorers this week and one was added after a game at Reedsport last Saturday and another at Myrtle Creek Tuesday.

Bill Earis of Reedsport and Ralph Rudzik fell out of the list of leaders, but Myrtle Creek's New Tester hopped all the way from nowhere to fifth place in the scoring race. Suddenly finding his shooting eye. The wily Viking guard added 31 points to his total. He scored 11 in half a game against Reedsport and then went wild in the second half of the Sutherlin-Myrtle Creek game to ring up 20.

LeRoy Elting, with his Indians playing kings-K games over the weekend, continued to hold pace among district scorers with a formidable 16.3 average. Don Gillespie of Myrtle Creek held second with a 14.2 average. He has scored the most points but has played in four games to Elting's three. Sutherlin's Kenny Wahl moved up from fourth to third, dropping Reedsport's Duane Leggett to fourth.

'A' Schools Date Weekend Games

This is a get-acquainted-with-the-other-half weekend for Douglas County "A" schools.

Friday night, the Coquille Red Devils come to Roseburg for the second game of the season between these two. The Devils won the original encounter, 42-40, so this can be tabbed a revenge match. Saturday night, the Indians move to North Bend for a second game with the Bulldogs. On their home court, the locals bounced the second-place Benders, 42-34, in the first meeting.

The most impressive battle between Coos and Douglas County District 5 rivals, however, is the game at Marshfield where the Pirates will host the Reedsport Braves in the baptism of the new $500,000 gym.

It's the perfect match for the opening battle on the spanking new maple boards. Both teams are tops in their sub-divisions of the district and both have brilliant season records. Coach Norm Olson's Reedsport charges have won 12 of 14 games and are currently boasting an unbroken string of eight wins. Bruce Hoffine's Pirates have won 11 of 14 and are on a nine-game winning streak. The 3,500 capacity gym will be bulging for this one.

Benefit Game Slated

Yoncalla climaxes its Infantile Paralysis fund-raising drive Friday night at 8 p.m. with a home-grown basketball show.

At the high school gym, the prep Eagle basketballs will attempt to teach their elders, the Yoncalla Tiger AAU squad, a lesson in the finer points of the hoop game. More significantly, the two teams will be working in conjunction in a fight against dreading polio. Everyone including members of the teams will pay admission.

DONKEY GAME SET

Donkey basketball will make a second appearance in the Camas Valley gym Thursday, Feb. 7 at 8 p.m. The Young Old Fossils will ride against the Grangers.

NOTHING DEFINITE

Matthews, Walcott Fight Receives Tentative Okay

WASHINGTON (AP) — A heavyweight title match between Champion Jersey Joe Walcott and Harry "Kid" Matthews backed by Las Vegas, Nev., Hotel Operator, Wilbur Clark has been tentatively agreed to but whether the fight ever will come off is anybody's guess.

There was at least one resounding "no," and even the "yes" votes were covered with ifs.

The decision was announced late Wednesday at a news conference that raised far more questions than it answered.

Reporters were called into a suite at the Shoreham Hotel for a conference attended by Harry Hunt, a Los Angeles promoter; Felix Boechchio, Walcott's manager, and Jack Hurley, who manages Matthews, an up and coming Seattle light heavyweight.

Boechchio said Hunt had made this offer:

"He said he'd give us $250,000 and give me 50 per cent of everything."

There was a catch to the acceptance, though. Boechchio said Walcott had a contract with the International Boxing Club, and that he will go to Coral Gables, Fla., on Saturday to talk with Jim Norris, IBC president.

Boechchio said Norris would have to match, or better, Hunt's offer to get the fight.

Harry Markson, director of boxing for the IBC, promptly said in New York:

"We are confident Boechchio will fulfill his contractual agreement to fight Ezzard Charles for the heavyweight title for the IBC."

Here are a few of the questions which never got a definite answer: When will the bout be held? Some time in May.

Where? No answer here, but Las Vegas, Nev., Los Angeles and Philadelphia were mentioned as possibilities.

Who is Harry Hunt? Hunt replied he'd done some promoting. No, he'd never promoted a fight before.

Jack Harvey sank a 35-footer and a foul shot to jerk the carpet from under host Oakland and win a hairline 45-44 victory for Glide in an Umpqua Valley AAU League basketball game Wednesday.

This was the piece de resistance climaxing a tremendous second half drive by the Gliders to overcome a 16 point deficit at halftime. At the midway juncture, Oakland had doubled the score, 32-16. With Harvey and Myron Vleck pacing the comeback, the visitors cut the lead to two points, 44-42, in the last minute. Then, with five seconds to go, Harvey let go with his desperation one-hander from far out. It connected to tie the score and was fouled just after the ball left his hands.

Harold Smith of Oakland was again the whole team as he hit for 23 points. That gave him a total of 167 points for the season, a 23.8 average.

Clarence Henry Stops Satterfield

CHICAGO (AP) — What Clarence Henry wants to know is — "Where do I go from here?"

The sensational 23-year old Los Angeles heavyweight disposed of Bob Satterfield in 1:41 of the first round Wednesday night in a scheduled 10 rounder in Chicago Stadium.

Referee Freddie Gilmore finally stopped the fight after Satterfield arose shakily from the canvas for the third time, blood streaming from a gash over his left eye brow and Henry jogged in for more blasting.

It was young Henry's 14th consecutive win and his 17th knockout in 32 pro fights. He weighed 157 and Satterfield 180.

"I want to fight Rocky Marciano," said Henry, a 1948 Gloves champion. "But where do I go from here—I do not know."

He meant that he will have to get on Joe Walcott's waiting list, behind Ezzard Charles and Marciano.
