March Of Mothers Boosts Polio Fund

lion mothers throughout the nation staged a one-hour Mothers' March on Polio which produced millions of dollars to fight the disease. Scattered returns Friday showed $4,650,679 collected in 123 of the participating 1,500 communities as compared to a final total of $2,300,000 raised in 600 places in 1951.

Basil O'Connor, president of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis, said the March had attracted more volunteers for the 1952 March of Dimes campaign than any other event in the organization's 14-year history. O'Connor said the full returns for the 1952 campaign, which was extended from the usual two weeks to a month this year, will not be available for some time.

Cancer Society Unit Plans Douglas Campaign

An intensive cancer-education program for Douglas County is being planned, according to Mrs. Celia Day, commander of the local unit of the American Cancer Society.

"The education campaign will continue from now through April," said Mrs. Day, "and any organization or club wishing to put on a cancer-education program is asked to phone Mrs. Mike Gibbons at 3-3727."

Mrs. Gibbons, who has been recently appointed to the cancer education committee to assist Miss Patricia Mays, Mrs. Erica Graham and Mrs. Louise Hayes, will be in charge of contacting organizations.

"We have three films available to show to local groups," Mrs. Gibbons said. The films are "From One Cell," "Time Is Life" and "Self Examination of the Breast." A doctor and a member of the American Cancer Society are present when the films are shown to make a brief talk and answer any questions. A projector and operator are also arranged for by the Cancer Society.

Yoncalla Plans Polio Benefits Next Week

Yoncalla will be the scene of two benefits for the March of Dimes during the first week in February. The first will be held Sunday, Feb. 3, at 1 p.m. There will be a gaitee horse race on the main street of Yoncalla and a Dutch auction of a pig, rabbit, guinea and other items to be held at the Loggers Tavern.

Roy Del Ruth's "It Happened on Fifth Avenue" will be staged at the Eagle Theater in Yoncalla Thursday, Feb. 7. The cast includes Don DeFore, Ann Harding, Charles Ruggles, Victor Moore and Gale Storm.

Sea Tragedy Widow Sues For $150,000

SEATTLE — Mrs. Marie Nordness, widow of a seaman who perished when the freighter Pennsylvania disappeared in the North Pacific Jan. 9, has filed suit seeking $150,000 damages from the owners of the ship.

The suit, filed in King County Superior Court Thursday, said the ship was unseaworthy, cargo was improperly stowed and lacked adequate lifeboat launching equipment. She sued for herself and three minor children.

Forty-six seamen were lost with the Pennsylvania, which was owned by the States Steamship Company.

CITY COURT CASES

Three cases were disposed of in municipal court Friday, reports Municipal Judge Ira B. Riddle. Orville Merritt Fay, 62, Roseburg, was ordered to leave town in lieu of a $20 fine on a vagrancy charge.

Charles Ambrose DeRoss, 58, 1705 Umpqua Park, Roseburg, was committed to the city jail for 25 days in lieu of a $50 fine on drunk and disorderly charges.

Darrel Frye, Roseburg, forfeited a $25 fine on charges of violating parking ordinances.

Truce In Korea Or War Shift, Navy Head Says

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Secretary of Navy Dan. A. Kimball, struck sharply at inefficient government employees and harping civilians Wednesday night and also said the Navy would carry the war to the enemy if there is no truce in Korea.

He delivered his strongly worded speech to a meeting of the local Navy League Council and the Milwaukee Executives Club after laying aside his prepared text.

Referring to men in government, Kimball declared "if they don't deliver the goods, let them get hell out of office."

"We're not going to fight the next war in the United States. We are going to fight it somewhere else and it'll be up to the Navy to take the Army, the Air Force and the Marines to their new positions, and let the Navy which supplies them with what they need to do their jobs."

Britain's Big Earners Dwindle Under Taxes

LONDON (AP) — The thin ranks of Britain's much-soaked earners of big paychecks have been weeded again.

The inland Revenue Commissioners reported Thursday night only 60 persons had incomes of 6,000 pounds, $16,800 or more after they paid income taxes for the year that ended in March, 1950.

The year before there had been 86 members of this dwindling elite corps.

The little guys still paid most of the taxes. Revenue officials said most of the money collected came from 9,290,000 people earning between five and 10 pounds, or $14 to $28, a week.

Hubby, 99, Stays On Job During Alimony Suit

LOS ANGELES (AP) — John A. Brown, 99, didn't take time off from his 17½-month job as plant guard to contest his wife's alimony testimony.

Mrs. Isabele Brown, 72, told the court she is willing to cook for her husband and share grocery bills until they are divorced, but that she wants $125 a month to get along, whereas Brown gave her only $31.40.

The court awarded her $80 a month temporary alimony. The couple has been married 28 years; Brown has had his job 40 years.

Slaughterers Will Pay Inspectors' Salary

WASHINGTON — Slaughterers across the nation have agreed to foot the bill so 280 government meat inspectors won't be fired because of a lack of federal funds.

The Agriculture Department notified the inspectors two weeks ago they would be laid off. But Thursday it said the slaughterers affected would finance the operation through inspection fees rather than face a slowdown in their meat output.

The inspectors, located in meat packing plants, are part of the more than 2,800 who check on the U.S. meat supply.

Rotarians Entertained By Trombone Quartet

A trombone quartet from the Senior High School band entertained Rotarians during luncheon in the Umpqua Hotel Thursday noon.

The quartet was composed of Gale Anderson, John Duval, Ralph Barker and John Rand. They played three selections.
