Helen Casey President Of Mercy Hospital Aux.

One of the largest and most charming affairs of the week was given by the Sisters of Mercy Hospital Wednesday evening, when they entertained the members of the newly organized Mercy Hospital Auxiliary in the attractive dining room of the hospital, at which time Miss Helen Casey was elected president.

The large U-shaped table was beautifully decorated with Valentine baskets filled with red carnations and pussywillows arranged with fern. Streamers of red satin ribbons ended with red and white Valentine lace hearts. Candelabra held tall red and white candles.

Sister Superior Mary Natalie gave the invocation and the welcome to the group. Mrs. W. F. Amiot presided as temporary chairman and reports were given. Mrs. R. R. Parsons and Mrs. Glenn Scott presented the constitution and by-laws, which was read by Mrs. Hall Seely. Mrs. Hedwig Watzig read the report of the committee organizing committees for the organization, of which Mrs. J. G. Verberkmoes is chairman.

Officers were unanimously elected and those who will serve with the president, Miss Casey, include: Mrs. W. F. Amiot, vice president; Mrs. Hall Seely, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Stephen Kiss, corresponding secretary, and Sister Mary Natalie, honorary president.

Miss Casey gave a short talk and stated there were two present, Mrs. J. A. Harding and Mrs. J. C. Hume, who were members of the first Mercy Hospital Auxiliary, which functioned a number of years ago.

The Sisters of Mercy and the president will decide on the duties and functions of the various committees. Publicity, program and public relations chairman will be appointed as well as a means finance committee.

Four service groups are being organized within the auxiliary and members gave their preference for the group they care to work with. The four groups include: Sewing, Motor Corps, Baby Alumni and Hospitality and Service.

At the close of the meeting, a tour of the hospital was enjoyed as a number of the auxiliary members had not been shown through the new, up-to-date hospital wing, which was only completed last summer.
