Public Affairs Dinner Is Event of Monday

The Roseburg Business and Professional Women's Club held its annual banquet Monday evening at the new parish hall of the Episcopal Church. The banquet was under the direction of the public affairs committee with Mrs. Jean Whittenburg as chairman. Assisting were Mrs. Elynor Massey, Dr. Eleanor Carlson and Mrs. Edith Landis. The tables were decorated in a red, white and blue color scheme.

Mrs. Katherine Lockwood brought her harmonica band from the Benson School and they presented musical selections for the group.

Mayor Albert G. Flegel and Mrs. Flegel and City Manager Gilchrist and Mrs. Gilchrist were guests and spoke briefly on public affairs.

Mrs. Grace Morse of Eugene was the main speaker. Mrs. Morse is a former teacher of the College of Education at Monmouth and the University of Oregon. Since her retirement she has traveled extensively. Her talk was based on the UN and the efforts being made toward world peace by that organization. She reported that the three main efforts of the UN to bring about world security other than using the atom bomb are: 1. stamp out hunger; 2. to better the health conditions of the other nations; and 3. to educate the world's illiterate people. She spoke enthusiastically about the UN and the many less known phases of their work. To close her speech she told of her experiences while attending sessions of the UN for two days in New York last summer.

Celebrate Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Strong celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary Sunday at an open-house at their home in Myrtle Creek. About 100 guests were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Strong were married Jan. 25, 1892 in Roseburg, Ore. Both were born in Myrtle Creek and have lived here most of the time.

They have two children, Geoffrey S. Strong of Portland and Mrs. Zenobia Aker of Myrtle Creek. They also have five grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Out-of-town guests at the open-house included: Mr. and Mrs. Clendon Cornelison of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Fetterman of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Strong of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Strong of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Roy R. Elman of Eugene; Mrs. Etta Schrad of Eugene and Mrs. Harry Pearce of Roseburg.

Other events in their honor included a reception held at the Kenneth Rank home Jan. 25 given by the Church of Christ members and friends. A dinner party was given by their daughter, Mrs. George Aker at Ford's Cafe Jan. 20.

An interesting meeting was held by the Writers Club Monday evening in the library of the Dr. and Mrs. George E. Houck home.

During the business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. Hilda Peterson, a number of sales were reported by various members of the organization. Mrs. Marjorie Hunt Pettit reported marketing the following: a puzzle to the magazine, "Pocket Crossword Puzzles," a verse to the "Joker," and three poems to "St. Joseph's News Press."

Mrs. George Bacher outlined her script, which was recently sold to radio station KRXL. Following this, Mrs. Hilda Peterson reported at length on her recently organized poetry class. A large number have enrolled, many of whom are already selling their works. An active, hard-working group Mrs. Peterson said that she expects many successes from the group.

Several members gave brief reports on their work in assisting with the research and preparation of radio scripts in conjunction with the Douglas County PTA association. Three members of the club, Mrs. Pettit, Mrs. Bacher and Charles Brand, discussed their problems in compiling historical events for the forthcoming Labor Day Centennial Pageant. The trio, together with Henry Barnek, have been designated to write the narrative for the event.

Near the close of the evening, a card, autographed by all the club members, and a year's subscription of "Pen Money" magazine were presented to Mrs. K. D. Lytle. Mrs. Lytle is moving to Salem, where her husband has been transferred with the State Highway department.

The next regular meeting is scheduled for Monday evening, Feb. 25.

Red Letter Day Tea Is Large Event of Week

One of the most charming affairs of the season in Yoncalla was the annual Red Letter Day Tea sponsored by the Women's Study Club Saturday afternoon in the Methodist Church with Mrs. Maria Bersinguel, supervisor of public schools in Manila, P. I., as guest speaker.

Mrs. J. D. Sparks had charge of the opening of the affair in the absence of the president, Mrs. Raphael Wise. Group singing was followed by the invocation by Rev. Mr. Knight and the flag salute.

Miss Ann Lasswell played a violin solo followed by a vocal solo by Mrs. Zeller. "Come To The Fair," accompanied by Mrs. Latham. Mrs. Edes accompanied Miss Lasswell.

Mrs. Earl F. Strong had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Hugh Warner pinned a lovely corsage on each guest.

The guest speaker appeared in a beautiful costume and spoke substantially on the rapid strides being made in the Philippines economically, politically and socially. Mrs. Bersinguel told of the country before the American occupation. She stated that only 30 per cent of the people had education and now that 52 percent are educated. She told of the horrors her own family went through during World War II and stated that now the Philippine people are again living normal lives.

The lace-covered tea table was centered with red and white carnations and tall white tapers. Mrs. Harvey Cockeram and Mrs. Fred Merk poured. A total of $36 was taken in and the money will go towards the exchange students fund.

Those present were: Mrs. Minnie Smith, and Mrs. Alice Emerson of Oakland; Mrs. Dave Rust, Mrs. Kenneth Mulkey, Mrs. Elmer Currier, Mrs. Guy Day, Elmer Richards, Mrs. Alta Thompson, Mrs. Frank Roberts, Mrs. J. N. Sparks, Mrs. Arla Jack, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Shively, Mrs. Al Hoffman, Mrs. Bernice Zeller, Mrs. Cecil McDonald, Mrs. Gus Peret, Mrs. Lawrence Jazek, Mrs. Hugh Warner, Mrs. Charles Timmons, Mrs. Leroy Hanson and two sons; Norman and Leroy; Mrs. Maude Thiele, Mrs. Harold Turpin, Mrs. W. R. Carnaniss, Mrs. George Edes, Miss Ann Lasswell, Mrs. Avery Lasswell, Mrs. E. T. Open-House Charming Affair of Sunday

A very charming party of the week was the open-house given by Miss Ruth Ann Betlach, Miss Nancy Hulings, Miss Mary Gredvig and Miss Doris Durech at their home at 3139 Walnut Lane Sunday afternoon. Friends were invited to call between the hours of four and six o'clock.

Daffodils and Dutch Iris formed the attractive decorations for the living room. The lace-covered tea table was centered with a candelabra holding five white candles and encircled with pink carnations and fern. Beautiful silver tea and coffee services were at both ends of the table.

About 100 friends called. Mrs. Celia Day, Miss Velma Werth and Miss Janet Morris poured.
