GLIDE CAMP FIRE GROUP COMPLETES SEVERAL PROJECTS

The girls of the Wahanka Camp Fire group have been busy since last October and have completed several interesting projects. In October, at the Gilde Grange Hall, they presented a play, "Camp Fire in a Nutsell," for invited guests. The play was received so well that the group was requested to repeat the program for the PTA Jan. 7.

At Christmas time, the girls made three large sprays of fir, cedar, and holly for the Roseburg Hospitals. In addition to the sprays, a box of books was given to the patients of the Veterans Hospital and collections of children's magazines were distributed to Mercy Hospital and Douglas Community Hospital for the children's wards.

With the assistance of Mrs. Guy Metcalf, the group decorated a Christmas tree in the living room of the home of Mrs. E. M. Burr and the small children of the community were invited to have fun. By the light of the burning logs in the fire-place, Santa Claus appeared with a heavy bag and distributed candy, nuts, popcorn and toys to the little guests while the girls sang Christmas carols.

On another evening, the girls prepared a spaghetti dinner and invited the Waditaka group and friends. After dinner, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Goodpasture of Roseburg showed motion pictures which everyone enjoyed.

A box of clothing has been collected and given to the Salvation Army for the needy. The Wahanka group are working on memory books and will soon pass another rank. Also, they are making paint holders for the Blue Birds and industriously sewing articles to be sold. At the school carnival, the girls sold completed articles, raising enough money to purchase their ceremonial gowns.

Jan. 30, being the birthday of their guardian, Mrs. James Evans, the group gave a surprise birthday party for "Bobbie" and her husband at their home on the North Umpqua.

Parents sometimes make the mistake of giving their youngsters too much to make up for the lack that they themselves felt when they were young. For instance, we recently heard of a mother who'd always wanted to study the piano. She'd sacrificed to give her youngster a fine piano and the best available teacher, only to find the girl lacking completely in enthusiasm.

The daughter protested for four years... making only meager progress with her study. The mother constantly said, "If you only know how much I've yearned to take piano all my life, you'd do something with your chance."

Finally the girl retorted... "Well, why don't YOU take the lessons instead of me?" The mother finally took her daughter's suggestion. She began studying piano and made such rapid progress that her offspring became re-enthused and got interested in helping her with her lessons. Now they're both taking lessons and both finding it more fun to study together. It can work that way in your family too.

A fine BALDWIN PIANO will give you years of pleasure and satisfaction. True, it costs a little more. But you can depend on its performance for many more years... you can be absolutely sure of FINEST quality with a Baldwin. Come in and try it for yourself. We'll be glad to arrange convenient terms at OTT RICKETTS MUSIC STORE, 101-105 W. Cass St. Phone: 3-3202. (Paid Advertisement)
