THE CISCO KID rus into another fast moving adventure when he discovers a western town that has no jail, tonight at 7:30. In stead of the usual bustle... this community boasted a "Jail Tree." This tree provided a hitching post where prisoners were chained in stead of putting them behind bars... and also sets the scene for Cisco's next dramatization.

GOVERNOR EARL WARREN (R) of California will guest Reporters' Roundup tonight at 8:00. The ad lib interviews of headline making personalities, by newsmen, continues its present series of programs devoted to outstanding presidential candidates when Govern or Warren is queried. Two of the three newsmen for this interview have already been named... Arthur Sylvester, of the Newark, N. J. Evening News, and Robert L. Riggs, of the Louisville Ky. Courier-Journal. Reporters' Roundup of late gives one a good chance to hone up on presidential candidates. It's well to take stock of these things ahead of time keeping in mind that this is presidential election year.

TOMORROW NIGHT, "Family Theater" celebrates its sixth anniversary on the air. A script has been especially prepared for this broadcast... titled "Heritage of Home." Screen star Loretta Young, who starred on the very first broadcast, returns to the microphone to narrate this special program, and will be supported by a host of Hollywood's top actors and actresses. This story dramatically unfolds the creation of the homelife of the United States.

INFORMATION PLEASE panel this week includes John Gunther and Richard Carlson, plus the regular panelists, Franklin P. Adams and John Kieran. Information Please returned to the air last week after a long absence, and is heard in this locality Saturday evenings at 8:30.

RECITAL HALL, featuring Mrs. Heinline's young students in recital, will be heard again tomorrow evening at 5:15. Mrs. Heinline has long been an outstanding piano teacher in this area, and it gives her great pleasure to bring her students to you via radio.

AMVTS Urge Bolder Action On UMT Plans

WASHINGTON (AP) — A spokesman for the American Veterans Committee urged Senators Wednesday to approve a "bold approach" to universal military training for 18 year old youths.

Louis C. Pakiser, Jr., of Tulsa, Okla., the AVC's executive director, testified that both UMT and the draft could and should operate together.

He sharply criticized as a "timid approach" a proposal that only 60,000 18-year olds be trained initially and then placed in the reserve subject to later call for active duty.

The National Security Training Commission, which would start with 60,000 and then gradually be expanded until the training covers 800,000 youths a year.

Pakiser also opposed a proposal voted by the House Armed Services Committee that the UMT trainees not be called to active duty until Congress specifically approves.

"To allow 18 year olds to return to civilian life while older men are required to remain on active duty would be wrong," Pakiser said.

Friday when she received a letter from First Lt. Metiva dated Feb. 3. "I have just completed by 101st mission," he wrote. "Due to some mistake in records, I have been sent on an extra mission... I'm just sitting around waiting for my orders to come through so I can come home... All the boys here are trying to complete their 100th mission as soon as they can so they will be able to return to the United States."

Then on Sunday, came a telegram from the Defense Department. It said Lt. Metiva "has been missing since Feb. 9, while participating in Korean operations."

Flier Is Killed On Extra Mission After His 100th

STANDISH, Mich. (AP) — A young wife whose Air Force pilot husband was sent out on more than 100 Korean combat missions due to "some mistake in the records" tried to be bravely optimistic Thursday after learning he is missing in action.

Mrs. Daniel G. Metiva's husband wrote that he had completed 101 missions, although pilots usually are sent home after 100, and was expecting to return by next month. After receiving a Defense Department telegram, she refused to think her husband is dead.

Mrs. Metiva was elated last

Taft, Kefauver Top Party Polls In Pennsylvania

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sen. Robert A. Taft, R-Ohio, finished ahead of Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in a presidential preference poll conducted by the Philadelphia Inquirer.

Final figures also showed Sen. Estes Kefauver, D-Tenn., finishing ahead of President Truman.

The week-long poll was conducted by means of ballots printed in the newspaper and mailed in by readers.

The final figures:
Republican
Sen. Robert A. Taft 6,547
Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower 3,441
Gen. Douglas MacArthur 585
Gov. Earl Warren of Calif. 342
Harold E. Stassen 342

Democratic
Sen. Estes Kefauver 708
President Truman 574
A few votes were recorded for U.S. Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas, Gov. Adlai Stevenson, and Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill.

Auto Union President To Speak At Oregon U.
PORTLAND (AP) — Walter Reuther, CIO official, will speak at the diamond jubilee of the University of Oregon at Eugene Feb. 26. The following day he will speak at a meeting of the Portland Chapter of Americans for Democratic Action.

Reuther, who is national president of the CIO Automobile Workers, is a national vice-president of ADA.

It's Loaded—So Be Careful!

Before you drive the Golden Anniversary Cadillac, there is one thing we should like to impress upon you: It's loaded—so be careful!

There's more power in that dynamic engine than you'll ever need—except for the rarest emergency. And it should never, never be used for dramatic display on the get-away.

If somebody else wants the honors when the light turns green—let 'em go. You don't have to prove anything, anyway.

But that great power works for you—even when you're not unleashing it to the limit.

It works for you as a reserve—and gives you that easy, quiet, flowing ride which makes a Cadillac such a joy to own and such a thrill to drive...

It gives you that slow-moving engine—that simply loafs at all legal speeds—and which is a literal Methuselah when it comes to long life...

And it is a primary reason for that unbelievably low upkeep expense, at which Cadillac owners never cease to marvel. Some fleet owners have found, for instance, that Cadillacs cost less to operate and maintain than any other cars they have ever used. And the easy-going engine, that never operates under strain, is a big factor in this economy.

Yes—Cadillac's great power works for you—and is necessary—and is one of the vital reasons why Cadillac's performance is so outstandingly different.

But we trust that no Cadillac owner will ever use it for dominating the highway. To do so is not only counter to the rules of safety—but it is not in keeping with the graciousness the motoring public has come to expect from the person who sits at the wheel of a Cadillac.

Have you seen this great Golden Anniversary creation? If not, we should be pleased to welcome you to our showrooms—at any time.
