Wrestling Doctor Appears In Armory Arena Saturday

It may sound odd, but a doctor will probably have reason to cast a professional eye upon his own anatomy Saturday night following the wrestling bouts in the Armory arena.

Johnny O'Brien Cracks Record

SEATTLE (AP) — Seattle University's Super Chief, Johnny O'Brien, has cracked one record and has seven games left on the regular schedule in which to wipe out the national standard for a single season.

The target of every team he meets, seldom guarded by less than two men, the little shillelagh of the Chieftains still has averaged 28.75 points a tussle for a current total of 776.

This beats by 10 the northwest record he chalked up a year ago. He must average 27.3 from here out to equal the American record set at 967 in 1950 by George King of Morris-Harvey.

John set another northwest court record this year when he scored 43 points in a single game against the Harlem Globe Trotters, but it was short-lived. Jim Doherty of Whitworth, now second in the regional scramble, hit 45 against Western Washington College.

the wrestling bouts in the Armory arena. Here is what is going to happen. Dr. Gallagher, a 190-pound grappler from Cincinnati, O., is going to tangle with Jack Lipscomb of Eugene in the semi-final.

This is the doctor's first appearance in the Northwest, and he will probably receive the fans' applause if he can stop the ruffian. But he will have to resort to all the tricks he knows if he puts Lipscomb on the mat.

Matchmaker Elton Owen saw Gallagher wrestle once and came away deeply impressed by the handsome grappler.

Regarded Highly

"I would say that he is in a class with Carl Engstrom," Owen remarked after watching him tie an opponent in knots. He is considered main event competition in Seattle, where he appeared recently.

In the finale of the evening, York Cretorian and Kurt von Poppenheim tangle with George Dusette and Buck Weaver in an Australian tag-team match.

York and Kurt issued a challenge to the Parks or Gorky brothers early in the week, but both pairs remained strangely silent. But Weaver and Dusette quickly accepted the invitation—and Weaver was mighty happy to get the chance.

He is burning to get at York and Kurt because they ganged him in the battle royal last week and flipped him out. For his partner he picked one of the strongest men in wrestling.

Matchmaker Owen says the Gorkys or Parks will probably be available for a bout next week with the winner of Saturday's conflict.

Tickets are on sale at Powell's.

Worsham Scents Tournament Win

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — Lew Worsham of Oakmont, Pa., had the scent of his first tournament victory in a year Friday as he set out at the head of the field in the second round of the $10,000 Texas open.

Worsham led the field of par-busters with an eight-under-63 as they prepared for cutting down time in the tournament.

He held a one-stroke lead over Walter Romans, a little-known pro from Baltimore, Md., making his top bid for a tournament victory. He has been on the winter swing only two weeks.

Tied at 65 were Julius Boros of Mid Pines, N. C.; Jackson Bradley of Chicago and Charles Harter of Logansport, Ind.

Frank Stranahan of Toledo, O.; Monte Sanders of Marshall, Tex., and Joe Conrad of San Antonio were the low amateurs, each with a 69.

Ex-Roseburg Woman Bowls High Scores

A former Roseburg woman, Mrs. A. G. Ingalls, started eyes popping out of their heads in Portland Bowling circles Monday.

She broke the Rose City Classic League series record with a smashing 608 in three games. This is tremendous in any women's league and far better than average in men's competition. She rolled consistently high games of 220, 215 and 233.

Mrs. Ingalls lived in Roseburg the year preceding September, 1951 and then moved to Portland when her husband, an employee of Guaranty Life Insurance Co., was transferred.

San Jose State Boxers Favored Over Vandals

SAN JOSE, Calif. (AP) — Two undefeated collegiate boxing teams—University of Idaho and San Jose State—meet here Friday night in their eighth dual punching competition.

San Jose, unbeaten in 23 consecutive dual meets, is slightly favored. Idaho has won the Pacific Coast intercollegiate title for the last three years. San Jose is in sight of Wisconsin's national record of 28 meets without a loss.
