MISSIONARY SOCIETY MEETS RECENTLY

The Missionary Society of the First Christian Church met for a regular February session. Devotions were led by chairman, Emma Beckley. Financial and secretaries reports were in good order. Crib blankets were reported finished and awaiting call. Due to health problems, program chairman, Kay Kleinfeld and librarian, Veldean Bridge, were relieved of their duties. President, Ellis Goffell, reported arrangements being completed for the White Swan Salmon Dinner to be held April 23 in the church parlors. Malcolm Norment, Director of the White Swan Mission near Yakima, Wash., plans to bring pictures of Paraguay and White Swan. The proceeds of the salmon dinner will be sent to White Swan Indian Mission near Yakima, Wash. The previous dinners have proven very interesting and enjoyable. The public is invited.

YONCALLA CHORAL SOCIETY POTLUCK AND SONG FEAST

The choir of the Yoncalla Methodist church sponsored a potluck dinner and "Song Feast" in the recreation hall of the church, Friday evening. Following the delicious dinner, a large anniversary cake was presented to Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Currier and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Emery. The large three-tiered cake was baked and decorated by Mrs. Charlie Kirkle. It was topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom.

A "Song Feast" was enjoyed with the singing of several selections and by request, Mrs. Tim Ellis rendered a solo, a favorite of the pastor. The group was invited to help with purchasing robes for the choir. A total of $72 was given.
