Betty Jane Jones daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones of Philadelphia, Pa., recently became the bride of Sidney Dale Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Smith of Tenmile at a candlelight ceremony performed by Rev. Dr. Ross H. Stover in the Messiah Lutheran Church in Philadelphia. The church was decorated with palms, candles and white flowers. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautiful in a gown of white lace, satin and nylon net with a peach tint and a little hat of satin with the same peach tint. She carried a white Bible and a bouquet of white chrysanthemums and stephanotis with streamers of white satin. Her shoes were of white satin. The bridesmaids Greta May Kircher and Grace Trauger, both of Philadelphia and friends of the bride, wore ballerina length gowns of an off-shade of blue net with contrasting sashes of velvet which tied in a bow in the back with the ends hanging down in streamers. Their shoes matched the sashes and they wore little half hats of white and blue chrysanthemums. They carried old fashioned bouquets of white and blue flowers, surrounded by white lace doilies and a large bow. The matron of honor, Mrs. Elsie Schardinger, (aunt of the bride) wore an off rust-colored dress made similar to the bridesmaids' dresses. Her shoes were rust and her bouquet was of rust and white flowers. Michael Ingalls of Minnesota, a friend of the bridegroom, was the best man. The ushers were Norman Carney of Minnesota and Robert Pfeffer of New Jersey, also friends of the bridegroom. The organist was N. Lindsay Norden and the soloist was Veronica Swigart who sang "Oh Perfect Love" and "I Love You Truly" and "Because." The wedding was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jones. The bridegroom was graduated from the Roseburg Senior High School in 1949 and is now serving in the U. S. Navy aboard the U.S.S. Oakhill at Baltimore, Md. Tickets for the party are now on sale at the Imperial Cleaners, Iles Confectionery, Sewing Machine Center, Cleo's Bakery, Ashcraft Jewelers and Emery-Foley Insurance Company. The style show will be presented by Miller's with Mrs. Ella Gray as commentator. Mrs. Ann Storrs is general chairman of the affair. Mrs. Laur Iled is in charge of entertainment; Mrs. Cleo Moat and Mrs. Minnie Clark are in charge of refreshments and Mrs. Flossie Virden and Mrs. Molly Maddox are in charge of the cards. The public is invited to enjoy the affair.

VISITOR FROM KENTUCKY — Mrs. Robert Spiller of Bowling Green, Ky., and her Pekinese dog, "Tweet-Ting," above, are photographed by Paul Jenkins. Mrs. Spiller is a niece of Mrs. Alfred S. Tyson and is visiting at the Tyson home. She came West with her husband, Lt. Spiller, who recently sailed from San Francisco for Japan. Mrs. Spiller has a number of friends in Roseburg, having visited at the Tyson home prior to her marriage.
