MARCELINE MOORE IS BRIDE OF ALVIN G. ANDERSON

Miss Marceline Moore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Moore of Roseburg, became the bride of Alvin Glen Anderson, Klamath Falls, son of Mrs. John Bonham of Klamath Falls at eight o'clock the evening of Dec. 29 in the First Methodist Church. Rev. W. A. MacArthur performed the impressive double ring ceremony in the presence of 150 guests.

Baskets of chrysanthemums, woodwardia ferns and candelabra holding tall white candles formed the church decorations.

Preceding the ceremony, Ralph Martin sang, "Because" and "The Sweetest Story Ever Told."

The bride was given in marriage by her father and was charming in a gown of nylon net and Chantilly lace over white satin. She wore a necklace of cultured pearls from Japan, a gift from the bridegroom. Her bouquet was of white chrysanthemums and gardenias.

Mrs. Colleen Murphy of Long Beach, Calif., sister of the bride, was matron of honor and wore a gown of peach dimity and Miss Lois Ferguson of Portland was bridesmaid and wore a gown of aqua dimity. Both attendants carried bouquets of yellow chrysanthemums.

Jack Rich, Roseburg, was best man and Fred Schotz, Medford, was the usher.

A reception followed in the church parlors.

For traveling the bride chose a navy blue suit with matching hat and purse. Her corsage was of gardenias and she wore white gloves. Following a honeymoon down the coast to California, Mr. and Mrs. Anderson are now at home to their friends at 533 1/2 S. Stephens Street.

The bride has resided in Roseburg all of her life. She was graduated from Roseburg Senior High School and attended Oregon State College. She is employed as a case-worker for the Douglas County Welfare Commission.

The bridegroom has resided in Klamath Falls the last 15 years. He was graduated from Klamath Falls High School and attended Oregon College. He has just been released to inactive duty in the U. S. Navy. He is employed as a forester with the U. S. Forest Service.

program was presented. Games were played and refreshments were served to the guests. Mrs. Joy Augustus and Mrs. T. W. Bernard and the mothers, Mrs. Jim Britton, Mrs. Paul Wray, Mrs. William Smith, Mrs. Leslie Stark and the leader, Mrs. Robert Caley.

Girls present included: Susan Hill, Linda Hodson, Sylvia Caley, Linda Smith, Gail Britton, Susan Corkum, Gerylon Palmer, Sharon Stark, Carol Wray and Louise Simon.
