Wilbur School Board Plans Improvements

By ELSIE BROZIO

The Roseburg school board met with the Wilbur school board at Wilbur School Monday night, Feb. 11.

No definite plans were made, but the Roseburg school board looked the building over for necessary improvements for the coming school year to accommodate a larger enrollment of elementary students.

Wilbur News Briefs: Vern Lerwill of Tiller was a visitor at the home of Mrs. Carrie Blakely in Wilbur Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Alene Thomas and Mrs. Dorothy Moffitt spent Friday in Roseburg shopping and attending to business.

Mrs. Tina Johnson daughter,

Janie, and son, Paul of Seattle Wash., spent a few days last week at the home of Mrs. Johnsons brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Christie, in Wilbur. Mrs. Johnson was called to Wilbur because of the illness of her mother, Mrs. Cecilia Fisher.

Donny Person, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Person, and Rollie Grubbe, son of Mrs. Bernard Grubbe, have been absent from school because of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bowers and Mrs. Eva Kinsel motored to Corvallis over the week-end on business and to visit relatives.

Mrs. Viola Lee and Mrs. Eva Kinsel were dinner guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Chancellor in Wilbur.

Mrs. Alene Thomas and Mrs. Emma Brown were dinner guests, Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Harry Baird in Wilbur.

Mrs. Eva Thompson spent a few days visiting her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Weatherly, in Elmon.

Dolph Morley has gone to Salem on business and to visit relatives.

Mrs. Leonard Pohl of Glendale was visiting at the home of her father, W. D. Turner, Tuesday afternoon.

A judiciary monopoly subcommittee called James W. Cassidy, assistant general counsel for the Federal Trade Commission, while the Interstate Commerce Committee heard from Justice Department and other witnesses.

Forty five states have "fair trade" laws under which manufacturers, jobbers and retailers may contract to sell brand-name goods at not less than an agreed-on price.

Decision Creates Doubt Under the federal Miller-Tydings act, these state laws apply to certain brand-name commodities, moving in interstate commerce and exempt "fair trade" price-fixing agreements from the anti-trust laws.

But their effectiveness came in doubt when the supreme court ruled recently in two instances that "fair trade" agreements do not apply to non-signers and therefore are not compulsory against all retailers.

Assistant Attorney General H. G. Morrison Wednesday told the Judiciary subcommittee that "fair trade" agreements were "an affront" to the American people.

He called them a "cloak" for monopoly price-fixing which gives the consumer "no choice but to buy at the price which private groups have decided is 'fair'."

Traffic Mishap Sends Bride To Hospital

ASHLAND — A highway mishap interrupted a honeymoon trip Thursday, sending a Chicago bride to the hospital with multiple fractures.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Calabrese had stopped their car nine miles south of here in the Siskiyou Mountains to put on chains. She was standing beside the car when another vehicle, driven by Harold Fouk, Encinitas, Calif., went out of control and struck her.

Mrs. Neil Christian took her husband and Robert Hood to Eugene Friday, Feb. 8 for the polio clinic at Sacred Heart Hospital where both men have been recent patients.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Guiley were the former sister, Mrs. Ruth Parker, and Ralph Hunsaker of Pleasant Hill.

Mrs. Ernest Trussell is able to bow out again after being confined for two weeks with the flu.

Mrs. R. A. Eastman and family entertained Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Edgington of Sisters, Ore. at dinner recently. Mr. Edgington, a Grange fire inspector, was in this area on business. The Eastmans are from Sisters and were friends of the Edgingtons there.

Delmar Christian of Springfield visited Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Knapp and Mr. and Mrs. Neil Christian the first part of the week.

Mrs. W. E. Buell is reported to be ill at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. O. Morris of Seattle are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Kruse.

The two-room addition to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Christian has been completed.

M. B. Emmitt has a new tractor. Mr. and Mrs. George Kruse and son, Benny, of Portland were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clar-
