Camas Valley Citizens Meet

By MRS. JEAN YODER
Camas Valley School Citizens' Committee held a pioneer meeting Wednesday Feb. 13, at the school. Superintendent Marlen Yoder, acting chairman, explained that the committee was created with the sanction and backing of the official school board to study problems relating to the school.

Lowell Standley was elected chairman; Mrs. Arnold Bartley, secretary; and Bob Wheeler, vice-chairman. Guy Moore was asked to prepare a talk on the reorganization bill for the next meeting. Four other members are studying the bill to be ready for discussion.

May 19 is the date for the other meeting to be held this year. Those present were Mrs. Ben Pasco, Mrs. Art Jones, Ted Heilman, Mrs. J. A. Combs, Jack Porro, I. A. Wilson, Orley Weist, Guy Moore, the newly elected officers, and Superintendent Yoder.

Camas Valley News Briefs:
Mr. and Mrs. William Akin left for Eugene by bus, Feb. 14.
Mrs. Hattie Long is returning to her home on Camas Mountain. She has been visiting her sons in Tennessee since Christmas.

Jim Blander and son, Jim, have taken a load of lumber to Arizona and plan to bring a "cat" with them on their return.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ashenburner and Mr. and Mrs. John Ashenburner visited Mr. and Mrs. Guy Moore Sunday, Feb. 10. Both families are from Portland.

Three free films will be shown to the public at the Camas Valley School Feb. 25, beginning at 7:30 p.m. A doctor will be present to narrate the films.

A special film for women will be presented at a later date, determined by the women present on the 25th, according to Mrs. Guy Moore, head of the Cancer Society in Camas Valley.

At a special meeting Feb. 15, Camas Valley Grangers adopted plans proposed by Ernest Booth for their Grange Hall, after slight modification. J. A. Combs, chairman of the building committee, conducted the meeting.

Heating the proposed building was under discussion, but no decision reached. The motion was made to ascertain the cost of both block and frame construction, including necessary specialized labor, and decide on the type of construction to be used, at the next regular business meeting of the Grange.

Those present were Chairman J. A. Combs, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. William Cunningham, Mrs. Charles Crouch, Mr. and Mrs. Claughton, Ernest Booth, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Papst, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Wilson and Joe Kirkendall.

Church Board Elects
Mrs. Ethel Brown was elected president of the official board of the Camas Valley Church at a meeting of the board on Feb. 14, following a Fellowship dinner. Hayden Taylor was elected vice-president and Mrs. Ruby Moore, secretary. The elections were presided over by the Rev. L. G. Weaver, acting president, and Mrs. Weaver, acting secretary.

Following the elections, the meeting was turned over to the officers. It was decided the group meet monthly on the regular Fellowship dinner night, the third Thursday of every month. The board pledged its cooperation with

ANTI-STALINITE—Adm. Alan G. Kirk, who recently resigned as U. S. ambassador to the Soviet Union, announced he will head the American Committee for the Liberation of the Peoples of Russia. Their aim is to spark a revolution against the Kremlin and to aid anti-Communist emigres of Russia. Says Admiral Kirk: "If the Stalinist regime is our enemy, the people enslaved by him in the Soviet Union are our friends."

Elkton WMC Attend Junction City Meeting

By MRS. GRACE SAWYERS
The Joint Women's Missionary Council of the Assembly of God in Junction City was attended by a group from the Assembly of God Church, Elkton, and included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Haines, Mrs. E. Walker, Mrs. Fred Riley, Mrs. Doris Mills, and the Rev. and Mrs. LaVerne Gould.

Speakers at the meeting included Rev. Mr. Rugwell from Alaska, and the Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wilkie of Bolivia, South America. Handwork brought to the meeting by the WMC was donated to the Wilkies, who plan to return to their field work in Bolivia.

Rev. Mr. Wilkie and Mrs. Gould were classmates at the Northwest Bible Institute in Seattle, and graduated from the pioneer class of 1937.

Elkton News Briefs:
Ronald Moore was absent from school because of the measles, Friday.
Billy Binder is recuperating following a long illness.
Phyllis Gould, daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. Gould, is home from school with the measles.
Mrs. Marie Gertz of Cottage Grove is visiting at the home of Mrs. Clara Riley this week-end.
John Sawyers and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wallace spent Sunday at

Rev. Mr. Weaver in the United Evangelistic program of the church.

"THE WHITE BOXES" on a shelf of Scotland Yard's "BLACK MUSEUM" are all that remains of a story that ended with the death of a 90-year-old spinster in the United States. Mutual-Don Lee's Orson Welles airs the unusual tale behind these "Boxes"... and a woman who was acquitted of a murder charge, during tonight's tale of the BLACK MUSEUM at 7:00.

THE M-G-M THEATER OF THE AIR takes over the hour from 8:00 to 9:00 tonight, starring Jack Carson in "The Duke Steps Out." When a heavyweight boxing champion decided on a college career at a side-line he creates the series of situations for the highly amusing story of "The Duke Steps Out." An outstanding film success, it has now been adapted for use on the air. Jack Carson is starred as the fighter who upsets his manager's ulcers by enrolling as college student under an assumed name.

UNCLE BOB, on his UNCLE BOB'S STORYTIME, week-daily at 4:00, brings stories and songs especially designed for the younger tots. Numerous telephone calls attest to the popularity of this program with the younger set.

IT'S A FACT! Andy Hardy thinks that research is a very simple thing. "If you can't find the facts you want... just make some up" is his motto. His idea, however, backfires when the "Hardy" version of his home town's history is met with a war by the descendants of the community's founder. Andy dis-
