

Cage Season Will Close Out During Week

Regular season basketball closes out with a rush this week. By Saturday, Feb. 23, the host of leagues will be closed out as teams make ready for post-season tournaments. Roseburg was the first to finish competition after getting a head start in late 1951. While the Indians are resting, every other team completes its schedule by late Friday night. The tournament season gets underway next week.

Only two games of league significance are scheduled tonight. Elmira comes to Drain for the last Valley League tilt and Florence invades Reedsport for the next-to-last Coast League battle for the Braves. Drain is veritably assured of third place in the Lane county loop and the Braves are tied for first in the Coast circuit. Other games of the kings-X variety had Glide at Days Creek, Myrtle Creek at Riddle, Oakland at Sutherlin and Creswell at Yoncalla.

Drain Host Pleasant Hill
On Friday, Drain is host to Pleasant Hill in the only non-league tilt. Myrtle Creek journeys to Illinois Valley to try for a co-championship in the Josephine-Douglas-Jackson League and Newport comes to Reedsport, with the Braves shooting for at least a co-championship in the Coast League with Toledo.

The final "B" league round finds most of the positions pretty well determined. Undeclared Elkton can't be shaken from the North Half championship, but the Elks will try for another win at Glide. Oakland can at best tie for third place in the league when it invades Yoncalla. In the south, it appears almost certain that Glendale and Riddle will end up in a first place tie. The Pirates are through for the season with six wins and a loss and the Irish, also with one loss, go to Camas Valley to close out the regular play. Canyonville has third place nailed down but will play at Days Creek for increased prestige.

Harold Smith Of Oakland Snares AAU Scoring Title

Although willowy Harold Smith of Oakland didn't play in his team's loss to J C Sporting Goods last week, he had the scoring marbles in the bag.

In his eight games, he has scored more points than any other player for an average almost five points per game better than runnerup Dick Strait of Yoncalla. This makes the second year in the two-year history of the league he has captured the pointmaking honors.

League Champion J C Sporting Goods placed three men in the top 10, but oddly the two highest scoring teams in the league were unable to place more than one. This apparently reflects the value of team above individual scoring. Yoncalla's Dick Strait, sole representative for that team, held firm in second place with his 18.2 average, but Wally Richardson of Firmco dropped from sixth to seventh. He too was his team's only representative although the Myrtle Creek quint averaged over 65 points a game.

Loomis In Big Three
Towering Jack Loomis completed the big three in league play by moving up a notch with a total addition to 43 points in his last two games. He scored 19 against Oakland and added 24 in his final game of the season against Firmco. He edged out Mark Griggs, who

Gilkeson Bowlers Double Lead

Gilkeson's Station doubled its lead from one to two points Monday night in City Bowling League play while a host of contenders were snarling at its heels. The Gilkeson bowlers swept games and points from Roseburg Jewellers. Meanwhile, Douglas Realty moved in as the top contender by taking three points from last week's top hope, Umpqua Chief Flour. Following the Realtors within a range of three points were six teams, making it the hottest league race of the year.

Mark Batt helped his Gilkeson mates to stave off contenders for another week by rolling the top individual game of 221. Tom Hobbs of Youngs Bay was the top series bowler with a 595. Douglas County Realty had both the top team game and series, 1,055 and 3,011.

Football Shorn In Ivy League

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Football was a de-emphasized major sport in the Ivy League Tuesday, shorn of its pre-season and post-season hoop-la by order of the presidents of the eight schools involved.

Under an agreement announced Monday by the colleges, neither coaches nor players may participate, among other things, in post-season intercollegiate games.

This rules students at Yale, Harvard, Dartmouth, Princeton, Brown, Cornell, Columbia and Pennsylvania out of the North-South and East-West games.

Nor may Yale's Herman Hickman again coach the North squad as he has for the last two games at Miami, Fla., while Dartmouth's Tuss McLaughry, one of the coaches of the East team in December's Shrine game at San Francisco, can't do it again.

Yale, whose football history is a history of the game itself, kicked off on de-emphasis last fall when it plumped for the elimination of spring practice. Last Saturday, the American Council on Education included in its "sanity code" a ban on spring practice and bowl games.

J C Quintet Nips Firmco In Funfest

Umpqua Valley League

Days Creek	0	9	372	555

With the Umpqua Valley League basketball title all wrapped up a week ago, J C Sporting Goods went on a lark at Myrtle Creek Monday night. They left off clowning just long enough to dump the Firmco squad, 71-67.

It was the last regular season game for both squads and probably ended league play for 1952. Only one game remains and that is between Days Creek and Oakland. Since neither team can change its position on the league ladder, a makeup of this game appears dubious.

Determined to have fun in spite of the result, the J Cs rolled onto the floor like kids out for an after-school game of "horse." The reaction by the Firmco quintet was at first amazement, but the hosts decided to give the visitors a lesson for the cavalier antics. They broke a 17-17 quarter tie to push ahead, 37-34, by halftime. It was turning into a rout by the third break with Firmco leading, 57-47.

Then, consciences began to bother the Roseburg quintet. It was apparently decided to make a contest of it anyway. At this time, the hosts were leading, 50-49, with 6 1/2 minutes to go in the game. Before the powerful Firmco quintet could catch its breath, J C was out in front 61-60. The battle settled down to a tug of war until the last three seconds with Roseburg on top, 68-67. Determined to hold the win, Jack Loomis took the ball out of bounds and held it for the three seconds. This was ruled illegal, so he took another try and this time found Don Hubbard alone under the basket. The latter potted the shot as the buzzer sounded.

The two wildest cutups on the floor were, oddly enough, the highest scorers. Jack Loomis rang up 24 points and Don Hubbard collected 21. Firmco's honor man was Bob Hoefs who made 15.

Subs: For J C — Nichols (1), Richardson; for Firmco — Newton (7), Hoskins (4), Wilson (4), Kraxberger (8).

Wyoming Hosts Husky Quintet This Weekend

LARAMIE, Wyo. — Wyoming University's red hot basketball fans are billing their inter-sectional series with the University of Washington this week-end as a match between the two best cage teams in the country west of Manhattan. (That is Manhattan, Kans., home of Kansas State.)

The fired-up Wyoming supporters are counting on their favorites to dump the Washington Huskies, sixth ranked team in the nation, and atone for defeats the past two years in Seattle. Wyoming is rated 19th in the Associated Press poll.

The series Friday and Saturday is Washington's first visit to the home court of the Wyoming Cowboys, who are showing their booted heels to the rest of the Skyline Conference.

Cowboys Win 10
Washington buttoned up the Northern Division title of the Pacific Coast Conference last week. Wyoming with 10 wins, 1 loss is a game away from the Skyline title.

The series, which is expected to pack the 9,000 capacity new field house here, may be a preview of the National Collegiate Athletic Association western playoffs at Corvallis, Ore., March 21-22. The Skyline and Pacific Coast Conference champions and two Western teams selected at-large will meet in the NCAA tourney. Wyoming and Washington are heavy favorites to be the conference teams.

Coach Ev Shelton, who guided Wyoming to NCAA and NIT national championships in 1943, has developed one of his best teams in the current Cowboy edition.

Snead, MacKinnon Given Nod In Mixed Tourney

ORLANDO, Fla. — Sam Snead and Betty MacKinnon were the favored pair in the 11th annual international mixed two-ball golf tournament opening here Tuesday. More than 100 teams fanned its holes over the 8,454 yard Duddreath Country Club in the quality-round.

High-Geared Wildcat Team Ranked Top Five In Nation

NEW YORK — Kentucky's high-geared basketball team Tuesday ranked as the best collegiate outfit in the nation for the fifth straight week.

Baron Adolph Rupp's Southeastern Conference powerhouse drew 36 first-place votes and 885 points in the weekly Associated Press poll to remain ahead of Kansas State.

Kansas State drew 16 first-place votes and 754 points from the 104 sports writers and sportscasters who participated in the coast-to-coast canvass.

Rounding out the top ten are: Duquesne, Iowa, Illinois, Washington, Kansas, St. John's, St. Louis, and St. Bonaventure.

Duquesne, only major unbeaten team in the land, collected only four first-place ballots but accumulated enough second and third place nominations to beat out Iowa for third place.

Makeup Remains Same
With the exception of positions, the makeup of the top ten was the same as last week. Iowa and Illinois moved up a step. Kansas jumped two places. St. John's advanced from tenth to eighth as a result of its victory over St. Bonaventure, which dropped from fourth to tenth. St. Louis dipped from seventh to ninth.

The Washington Huskies sewed up the Northern Division, Pacific Coast Conference, championship with a pair of victories over Idaho and advanced from No. 8 to No. 6. The Huskies received nine first place votes and 384 points.

Seattle University, No. 21 in last week's poll, took over the 16th spot.

The top 20 first place votes in parentheses:
Kentucky (36), Kansas State (16), Duquesne (4), Iowa (7), Illinois (3), St. John's (2), St. Louis (2), Washington (2), St. Bonaventure (2), Oregon (2), Oregon State (2), Utah (2), Utah State (2), Washington State (2), Wyoming (2), Idaho (2), North Carolina (2), North Carolina State (2), Wake Forest (2), Duke (2), Virginia (2), Virginia Tech (2), Wake Forest (2), Duke (2), Virginia (2), Virginia Tech (2).

JUST LONESOME

"Listen, friend, I ain't very drunk.
'Twas tears in my eyes made me fall.
I'm thinkin' of Jim—over there—
An' I'm lonesome, I guess, that's all."
"See—he ain't comin' back no more.
Here's the notice I got today.
Makes me feel kinda sad, I guess,
To lose little Jimmie that way."
"The polio took little Gene.
She was only seven, you see.
It's hell to be alone this way,
With Jim either side of the sea."
"Now I ain't got anyone left.
My wife? She passed away last fall.
This likker sure goes to my head.
An' I'm lonesome, I guess, that's all."
