Cesar Brion Whips Kahut

PORTLAND — Cesar Brion, 198, from Argentina, lost only two rounds when he took a unanimous 10-round decision over Joe Kahut, 188 1/2, of Woodburn, Ore., here Tuesday night.

Brion's worst round was the seventh when Kahut got him in trouble with a series of lefts and rights to the body. At one point the rangy Argentine's knees buckled. Kahut was down once and took the full nine count required under Oregon rules.

Joe's brother, Eddie Kahut, 160, knocked out Bobby Gerry, 157, Edmond, Alberta, in 1:36 of the first round in a scheduled six round semi-final.

In the scheduled four-round preliminaries:

Curly De Lorme, 149 1/2, Portland, defeated Bill Dehnell, 142, Vancouver, Wash.

Harold Kottri, 161, Silverton, Ore., knocked out "Brave" Junior, 157, Klamath Falls, Ore., in :50 of the second round.

Chuck Ross, 189, Portland, defeated Floyd Marks, 180, Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Matt Jackson, 171, Tacoma, knocked out Bill Boatman, 168, Longview, Wash., in :59 of the second round.

Current Winter Steelhead Migration Continues High

The current winter steelhead migration continues well ahead of all previous years, except the record year of 1947, reports William E. Pitney, game department field agent in charge of the Umpqua River study.

Through the first two weeks of February 347 fish were tallied at the Winchester counting station, bringing the total as of Feb. 15 to 3,473. The 1948 parent run had a migration record of 1,620 fish

Braves Sting Siuslaw High

Reedsport invaded Florence Tuesday night to sting Siuslaw High, 69-48, for its eighth Coast League basketball victory. It was the 17th season win in 21 games for the Braves.

Coach Norm Olson's charges trailed, 14-12, in the first quarter and had just barely nosed into the lead, 28-27, by halftime. But the Braves made a different game out of the second half. But the third quarter they boasted a 46-37 bulge and for good measure, piled on 23 points in the final to turn the game into a rout.

The win almost assured the Braves of a co-championship with Toledo, the only Coast League quintet to outscore the Douglas County aggregation. Reedsport has a final season game at home against Newport to finish off league play.

The Reedsport Jayvees won 54-23.

Irish Succumb To Vicks' Power

Art Brown's Riddle Irish basketball squad made the "A" school Myrtle Creek Vikings take notice through the first half on the Riddle court Tuesday, but finally succumbed to superior manpower, 62-41.

The Irish played one of their best games of the year in holding the potent Vikings to a 19-15 quarter lead and a 31-24 margin. They bottled Don Gillespie with two men and held him to eight points, but the Myrtle Creek scoring power cropped up elsewhere. Pinky Andrews rolled up 19 points.

Superior Myrtle Creek marksmanship turned the tide in the second half and the Vicks stormed away as they were expected. The story was told from the field where Myrtle Creek made good on .470 per cent of its shots while Riddle was pecking away at a .240 pace.

The Future Farmers triumphed in a battle of the YMCA League basketball giants, 19-17, Tuesday night at the Junior High School gym. Not, however, until second-place Hi-Y carried the game into an overtime.

The Farmers lagged through the first three quarters of the extremely low-scoring battle. They scored two points to one in the last quarter to push the game into an overtime. The score was tied, 16-16. Ed Ware wrapped up the contest in the extra period with the only basket of that additional session. The first was as bad as the last in this contest. The first quarter ended with the score tied 2-2. Hi-Y took an 11-8 half edge and held a 15-14 margin at the third break. Larry Gill hit a free throw in the final regulation period for his team's only tally in that session. Tom Findlay and Elmer Stritke each added one for FFA's only scores.

In other games, Methodist Church pushed Christian Church into the league cellar with a 24-19 decision and, with Poley Stacey scoring 11 points, Winston doubled the score to dump Dillard Methodist, 26-13.
