Those present were: Mrs. Kobornik's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harding of Trail; Mr. and Mrs. Eldridge Kobornik and son, Ricki; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Dame and daughter, Jo Lynn; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kobornik.

Carol Louise Steffenson Bride of Gordon E. Crook

An impressive wedding ceremony was held at the First Baptist Church in Roseburg, when Miss Carol Louise Steffenson became the bride of Gordon E. Crook. Rev. F. E. Crook, grandfather of the bridegroom from Eugene, performed the double ring services.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Steffenson of Portland and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. V. Crook of Roseburg.

A color scheme shading from light lavender to orchid, violet and deep purple was carried throughout the decorations and the gowns of the wedding party. Baskets of orchid and white stocks and candelabra holding tall orchid tapers decorated the church and the altar.

An organ prelude was played by Mrs. Sam Warg who also played the traditional wedding marches. Selections, "All Through the Years," and "Because" were sung by soloist Gene Yater.

Lighting the candles preceding the ceremony were Mrs. W. D. Steffenson and Mrs. Charles Black. Mrs. Steffenson is a sister-in-law of the bride and Mrs. Black is a sister of the bride. These two were dressed in wood violet gowns and wore veils of violet tulle.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was sweet and charming in a white satin gown with charmingly lace sleeves and bodice. The same charmingly lace fashioned a Juliet cap with a circular fingertip veil of French illusion. The cap was studded with seed pearls. A shower of white orchids formed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. James Phillips, sister of the bride from Portland, acted as matron of honor and was gowned in a wood violet tulle dress and ruffled headpiece to match. She carried a cascade bouquet of violet and lavender carnations.

Bridesmaids were Miss Delores Horton, Miss Valerie Sparks and Miss Dorothy Hunter. They wore white tulle gowns with matching ruffled net headpieces. They also carried cascade bouquets of violet carnations.

Miss Linda Oilar was flower girl and wore a gown matching that of the bridesmaids. Loren Black, nephew of the bride from Portland, was the ring bearer. W. D. Steffenson, brother of the bride, acted as best man while Roger Oilar, James Phillips and Merle Hampton were ushers.

The bride's mother was dressed in a purple formal dinner dress with pink accessories. Her corsage was of pink roses. Mrs. Crook was in an orchid formal dinner dress with purple accessories. She wore a corsage of violets.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parlors. The bride's table colors were orchid and white. Gardenias and sweetpeas were arranged in different designs. The large three-tiered cake was white and was trimmed in orchid.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Crook are spending their honeymoon in Nevada and other southern points of interest. For traveling the bride chose a beige and purple pin striped suit with an orchid corsage from her bouquet. They plan to return to their home at 1548 Yale Ave., Roseburg, after Mar. 1.

The bride formerly attended Roseburg High School and was graduated from Jefferson High School in Portland in 1951. She is presently employed at Umpqua Florists as a designer.

Gordon attended Roseburg High School and is employed as a grower for Umpqua Florists. He has lived in Roseburg all his life.
