LOVE, HONOR AND . . . GET THE STORY. Mutual - Don Lee's "Woman of the Year," Bette Davis, finally says "I Do" to Sam Craig, as portrayed by George Brent, to night at 7:00. The marriage vows, however, don't prevent the nation's top woman reporter from getting to her typewriter and beating out a "scoop."

SOME OF THE DURND'IST things happened in the Old West . . . take for instance the event that started tonight's adventure, "The Battle of Prescott." A wealthy Englishman decides he doesn't like the food served to him in a frontier cafe, so . . . he pulls out a roll of bills and buys the place. This move very nearly cost him his life . . . until Cisco took a hand. Hear "The Cisco Kid" at 7:30.

HANDSOME SCREEN leading man Cesar Romero guests tonight on "Hollywood Playhouse," starring in a happy-go-lucky story titled "The Luck of Adam." 8:30 to 9:00.

HEAR MRS. NATHAN FULLERTON in "Joys of a Shut-In" tomorrow morning at 9:45. Newly returned from Portland, Mrs. Fullerton looks fresh and rested. The immortal Caruso will have a spot on this program.

PREVUES FOR tomorrow night's listening . . . Scotland Yard's BLACK MUSEUM has a mute piece of murder evidence hanging in one of its display cases. It's a fancy muslin sheet from a ship's stateroom. Black & white marks and red blood stains tell a story of homicide. Orson Welles narrates, 7:00 to 7:30 p.m. MGM THEATRE OF THE AIR stars Lee Bowman in "Heavenly Body," from 8:00 to 9:00 p.m. Mr. Bowman plays a professor who spends so much time peeking at the stars that he neglects his very lovely wife and has to wage a campaign to win back her love. The MGM Theatre of the Air won recognition in the cultural category at the 15th American Exhibition of Education by Radio-Television, held under the auspices of Ohio State University in Columbus, Ohio, recently.

Child Born With Malformation Now Recovering

PENDELTON, Ore. — A baby girl who was born with her abdominal organs outside the body is believed to be on the way to full recovery, the attending physician said here Tuesday.

Dr. Clifford Wagner said he rushed Deborah Kaye Warren to surgery immediately after the girl's birth in Lone, Ore., and replaced the organs through a long incision in the side.

Deborah Kaye was born Feb. 7 to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warren of Lone.

Dr. Wagner said the little girl is now at home, resting and eating comfortably. He said that during the operation "we were forced to place the girl's appendix on the left side of her body instead of the right."

The doctor explained the phenomenon by saying that, in the embryo stage, the girl's stomach had failed to close in a small area over the stomach wall. During the pressure of birth, Dr. Wagner said, the force apparently ruptured the organs.

Only last December, another girl, Deborah Kaye Angelo, was born at Puyallup, Wash., near Tacoma, with her heart outside her body. Doctors operated immediately but Deborah Angelo died after 25 days of life.

Stabs Boy Friend Over Affections Of Monkey

ELYRIA, O. — Miss Susan Bach, who told police she stabbed her boy friend because he alienated the affections of her monkey, was in the Loraine County jail Thursday.

Miss Bach, 22, said "Zeke," the monkey, had been given to her three weeks ago by another friend. Since

Wedding Sends Oregon Parolee Back To Prison

PORTLAND, Ore. — Some men get married and almost at once feel they have been sent to prison. Jewell Chester Close, 39, actually was.

This came about because (1) he was on parole at the time; (2) his parole officer had told him not to wed, and (3) the one he married was the warden's secretary, Anne Carty, 38.

Close was a trusty at the State Penitentiary in Salem when he first saw her. The love bug had him by the time he was paroled last month, and, despite his parole officer's warning, he married her.

The State Parole Board said it just could not condone this. He already had ignored orders not to drink or drive a car, the board said.

So it revoked his parole Thursday. He has two years remaining of a three-year term for passing bad checks.

What's more, he won't be near his bride at the prison. She already has submitted her resignation, effective March 1.

The Tasmanian "tiger" actually a marsupial wolf, is one of the rarest of living animals.
