RED CROSS KICK-OFF: An address by President Harry Truman will keynote the 1952 American Red Cross campaign tonight at 10:30. This special program, titled "Answer the Call," will air four dramatic episodes symbolizing the work of this public service agency. Hume Cronyn, Dame Clark, Jackie Cooper and Charlton Heston star in dramatic sequences, with Jessica Tandy as narrator. Meridith Willson conducts the orchestra. E. Ronald Harriman, president of the American Red Cross, will introduce the President.

JOE MASSEY SHOW: The popular young Roseburg Western singer is going to expand his show talent. The Oklahoma Moonshiners are going to be with Joe on his shows on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

NEW SHOWS: The Ashcraft Jewelry "Stories of Fabulous Gems" made its debut last Friday night at 8:45. The drama, music and poetry on the quarter-hour show.

KIRKWOOD: A recent Jack Kirkwood comedy script, which related the adventures of a certain private eye known as "The Seagull," revealed the villain of the show's minute mystery to be a pyromaniac who gaily set fire to Good Humor men's moustaches. However, a Burbank, California
