 In this business of radio, spoonerisms always take place, no matter how careful you are. Thursday our genial engineer, in reading a spot, the Jimmy Turner Duo came out as the Jimmy Turner 'be' one last fall, during a football Tuo. And that one reminds me of game: the announcer intended saying swivel-hips, but somehow it came out hivel-swips. Those things, while almost hysterically funny to us, are acutely embarrassing to the poor guy who says them.

BY WAY OF A SMALL PREVIEW, we are informed that a group of young men from the Salvation Army Training College in San Francisco will be in Roseburg for field training the week of March 22-30, sponsored by our local Salvation Army. They will be interviewed over this station, Monday, March 24 at 10:15 p.m. We'll bring this up later in the month, to be sure all those interested won't miss it.

SUNDAY, TRUE DETECTIVE MYSTERIES, 2:30 to 3:00 asks the question, "Can a man be too rich for his own good?" Police suspected that robbers had killed a man whose body was found near the unopened safe in his home. From the appearance of his body, police guessed that he had been tortured before he died. Then detectives learned of the murdered man's relationship with a girl who had recently been married, and this started the manhunt that will be re-enacted from police records.

PRECEDING, 2:00 to 2:30, "Murder on Time," is the title of the drama enacted by Lamont Cranston as THE SHADOW. An opera box is the stage for murder turned to the key of E, and as soprano Aida Craven strikes the ominous note, Omar Dexter frumples over dead. But only the Shadow knows the connection between the musical note and the murder, for he finds the weapon — an electronic device set to propel death to the detested victim.

TONIGHT, 8:30 to 9:00, INFORMATION PLEASE guests are Marc Connelly and Gregory Ratoff. They will match wits with regular panel members, Franklin P. Adams and John Kieran.

IF YOU ENJOY POETRY set to a background of pleasing music, hear Leroy Hiatt and his MUSE AND MUSIC Sunday night at 9:15.

Four Lonely Sailors Request Pen Pals
 "We are four lonely sailors who have been off the coast of Korea for some time. We would like to hear from a few young women, who would care to write to us."
 That was how a letter began, a letter from four sailors who are stationed on the USS Philippine Sea in Korean waters. The boys, who signed their names Charles R. Johnson, Frank Barclay, Winford Holt and Bob L. Woodworth, may be addressed 2nd Div., USN, USS Philippine Sea, care of Fleet Post Office, San Francisco, Calif.

In The Armed SERVICES
Donald Lilja, USN, In Korean Combat Zone
 Serving aboard a small seaplane tender in the Korean combat zone is Donald W. Lilja, engineer, first class, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lilja of Canyonville. Before entering the Navy, he was graduated from Canyonville High School.
 In the past few years, the ship Flords Bay has seen duty in south China waters, the Philippines, Japan and Alaska.
 The graduating recruits at the U. S. Naval Training Center, San Diego, Calif., chose their "Honor-man" to be Dewey R. Clay, airman apprentice, USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Clay of Myrtle Creek.

 Clay entered the Naval service on Oct. 17, 1951.
 Honor men are chosen by vote of the company membership on basis of leadership, sportsmanship, military bearing, initiative, response to orders, qualifications of a good shipmate, and application to recruit training.
 At a regimental review each Honor man is presented an engraved silver identification bracelet and a certificate of his award.
