having turned out many pieces of furniture that look like the work of an expert craftsman. Outstanding among these was the grandfather's clock. Mrs. Houck also discussed her hobbies, of which her button collection was described as being "extremely colorful."

The next meeting will be March 25 at the Douglas Community Hospital, when new drugs will be discussed.

Plans were also made about the impending visit of Mrs. Nora M. Marco, assistant executive secretary, in April. A dinner for the occasion was suggested.

ZONTA CLUBS SPONSOR DANCE AT VETERANS HOSPITAL MONDAY NIGHT

One of the nicest dances of the season was held Monday night at the Veterans Hospital and was sponsored by the Eugene and Roseburg Zonta Clubs. The theme of the dance was a patriotic one, red, white and blue streamers, red and blue nut cups with small American flags plus silhouettes of George Washington and gold hatchets gave the recreation room a festive air. Anne Rickerts was in charge of the decorations with members of the Roseburg Club helping her committee. After several hours of dancing to the music of Ham Hamilton and his band, prizes were awarded to four of the boys and a delicious lunch was served by members of the Zonta Clubs.

After the dance at the Veterans Hospital the eight of the girls that came down from Eugene were invited to the lovely home of Mrs. Harold Horn on Jackson Street for coffee. Mrs. Horn's table was beautifully arranged with a pussy-willow and daffodil centerpiece. Georgia Rosencrans, president of the Eugene club, poured. The following members attended: Roseburg, Maude Kidder, Edna Helgeson, Edith Radabaugh, Rita Bar-Smith, Joy Augustus, Emily Judd, Gladys Foley, Mildred Horn and Virginia Ashcraft. Those driving up from Eugene to attend were: Dean Pittman, Georgia Rosencrans, Fanny Marlette, Ora German, Anne Laerman, Leora Peterson, Hazel Carter and Bernice Willoughby.

The next regular meeting of the Zonta-Club will be held March 2 at 7:30 p.m. This will be a sponsors party with Edith Radabaugh's Camp Fire Girls giving the party.
