Roseburg Couple Marry At Impressive Ceremony

Of much interest to Roseburg was the wedding of Miss Nancy Phyllis Austin to Victor Dean Sanders which took place Feb. 15 at the First Christian Church in this city.

Miss Austin is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Austin of Roseburg and Mr. Sanders is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Sanders of this city.

Rev Ray Kleinfeldt performed the ceremony in the presence of 250 friends and relatives. The date was especially chosen as it is the bridegroom's parents anniversary.

Baskets of pink stalks decorated the church. Lighted tapers flanked the altar. Nuptial music was played by Mrs. Ruth Trued and the songs, "Always" and "Because" were sung by Leslie Finkle of Myrtle Creek.

Nancy, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a princess style white satin gown with lace yoke and collar. Her fingertip veil was of French illusion and was fastened to a braid of satin. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink roses centered with a white orchid.

Noreen Allen of Roseburg was the maid of honor and bridesmaids were Darlene McAllister and Beverly Shelton. The girls wore pink taffeta gowns with pink net bodices and collars. They carried bouquets of white roses.

Candlelighters were sisters-in-law of the bride, Bette and Bernice Austin, who were escorted by their husbands, Bob and Tom Austin, all of Myrtle Creek. The girls were dressed in blue taffeta and wore corsages of white carnations.

Lorree Sanders cousin of the bridegroom, was flower girl and Bobby Austin was ring bearer.

The best man was Roy Van Horn and ushers included Frank Olson and Bob Sullivan.

The bride's mother was dressed in a light green dress with black accessories and wore a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. Sanders wore a navy blue dress with navy accessories and a corsage of pink roses.

Following the services a reception was held in the church parlors.

For traveling to the coast for a honeymoon the bride wore a beige suit with brown accessories. The new Mr. and Mrs. Sanders plan to live in Klamath Falls where the bridegroom will attend OTI for a radio course.

Nancy was graduated from Roseburg High School and attended the University of Oregon. Victor was also graduated from Roseburg High School and attended Oregon State College.

Teacher And Pupil Win Trip To Valley Forge

For the second straight year a teacher and a pupil of Englewood Grade School, Salem, have won a trip to Valley Forge as a prize in the Freedoms Foundation national contest.

The award this year went to Mrs. G. W. (Bill) Wharton's fifth grade at Englewood for demonstrating with colored slides and recordings the methods of teaching democracy.

Mrs. Wharton, who is the daughter-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wharton, of Roseburg, is well-known here, having visited in this city upon numerous occasions.

The prize is an all-expense trip to Valley Forge, Pa., for a teacher and pupil of the school. Last October, Principal Dorothy Daugherty and pupil, Grant Todd, made the trip after the entire school participated in the winning project.

Freedoms Foundation is a non-profit, non-sectarian organization about 50 teenagers.

Music was furnished by the Walk Orchestra. The Anchor PTA had charge of the affair.

A new light plant furnished the lighting for the party. This was the first time the plant had been used. Jim Lyons had charge of the folk dancing.

Refreshments were served by the PTA at a later hour.

DINNER PARTY HELD IN HONOR OF BIRTHDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Yraguen of Roseburg entertained at their home Sunday at a dinner party in honor of their daughter, Francie. It was her third birthday.

Those enjoying the occasion were: Mrs. Douglas Short and children, Douglas, Sharon and Carlos of Wilbur; Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Yraguen and daughters, Margarita and Maria of Wilbur and Mr. and Mrs. Domingo Sabala Jr., and daughter, Candace of Winchester.

A lovely birthday cake was cut by the guest of honor and gifts were opened and games and visiting enjoyed during the evening.

Linda Joyce Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Graham of Roseburg celebrated her third birthday at a party given for her Feb. 23 at the home of her parents.

A decorated birthday cake centered the table and each guest was given a candy bar. Gifts were opened by the guest of honor.

Those present included: Kenneth Paul Clevenger, Richard Dale Clevenger, Bonnie Blixseth, Carolyn Blixseth, Larry Waddle, Shirley Starnes, Nellie Waddle, Carmel Kelso, Sue Waddle, Timmy Blixseth, Mrs. Audrey Starnes and Mrs. Mildred Clevenger.
