Southern Players Dominate All-American Cage Quintet

NEW YORK (AP)—The South dominates the 1952 Associated Press All-American collegiate basketball team announced Wednesday.

Two players from the Southern Conference and one from the Southeastern were named along with one each from the Big Ten and the Big Seven.

Picked as the best all-around players of the season by a vote of 229 sports writers and broadcasters were Dick Groat, Duke: Clyde Lovellette, Kansas; Cliff Hagan, Kentucky; Chuck Darling, Iowa; and Mark Workman, West Virginia.

All have broken school and conference scoring records. In addition, they are wizards at grabbing rebounds and have shown a commendable team spirit in handing out assists. All are equally adept on defense.

The Future Farmers of America collected their 10th consecutive win in an undefeated YMCA High School League season Tuesday night at the Junior High by slugging out a 24-14 basketball victory over the celler dwelling Roseburg Christian.

Winston Christian posted the most topheavy victory of the night, a 41-15 triumph over Roseburg Methodist. The third game saw South Side edge Dillard Methodist, 20-17. The last loss dropped Dillard into fifth place for the only appreciable change in the standings.

The Roseburg Future Farmers were held scoreless in the last quarter, but not until they had built up a hefty lead the Christians couldn't dent. They waltzed to a 12-7 quarter lead and had more than doubled the score at halftime, 20-9. It was exactly double at the third break, 24-12. Ed Ware led the winners with six points. Meserve Ray of the Christians also had six.

With Winship scoring 14 and Stacy, 11. Winston had no trouble stomping Roseburg Methodist. Winston led at the third quarter break, 39-11. South Side was ahead in every quarter of its game with Dillard, but never by more than three points. John Duval led scorers with nine points.

THE $64 ANSWER
BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (AP)—The $64 question was what was throwing off Bloomington high school's basketball scoreboard. It turned out to be not dollars at all, but acorns — 64 of them tucked away in the mechanism by a squirrel.

Huskies Land 2 Men On Northern Quintet

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Champion Washington Huskies landed two players on a coaches' all-Northern Division basketball team announced Tuesday by Pacific Coast Conference Commissioner Victor O. Schmidt.

Bob Houbregs and Frank Guinness of Washington and Danny Johnston of Oregon State were unanimous choices of the five Northern Division coaches, Schmidt said. Hartley Kruger of Idaho and Ken Hunt of Oregon completed the first team.

The second team: Forwards Bob Peterson of Oregon and Eric Roberts of Washington State; Center Chet Noe of Oregon, and Guard Joe Cipriano of Washington. Bruce McIntosh and Herb Millard of Idaho tied for the other guard position.

Abnormal Psychology Class Dated March 25

A course in abnormal psychology will begin at the Junior High School March 25 under sponsorship of the extension service, Department of Education.

The class will meet each Tuesday from 7 to 9:45 p.m. for a ten-week period. Dr. John Haskins, manager of the Veterans Hospital, will be the instructor.

Persons requiring additional credit for certification and teachers are urged to enroll for the course. Additional information may be obtained by calling Robert Allen at the Veterans Hospital, telephone 3-4411.

South American Colored Films Will Be Shown

A series of six colored motion picture films of South American countries will be shown in Roseburg starting next week.

The pictures, which were taken by Dr. Louis T. Talbot, president of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, will be shown Sunday in the First Conservative Baptist Church at 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. The public is invited.

Monday and Tuesday they will be presented in the Junior High School auditorium at 2:30 and 7:30 p.m.

J. Russel Davis, photographer and former missionary to China, accompanied Dr. Talbot on the trip.

Included in the films are a pictorial record of 4,000 miles up the Amazon River, the Indians of the jungles and mountains and scenes from a monkey banquet.

The films will be narrated by Dr. Talbot. They are being shown under the auspices of the Bible Institute of Los Angeles, a missionary and evangelistic training center of the West.

ASSOCIATION MEETS
The members of the Degree of Honor Protective Association will meet with Stella Webster at her home on Miller Lane, Thursday at 7:30 p.m. Practice for installation will be held.

HAUNTING MEMORY
GENEVA, N.Y. (AP)—Jim (Sonny) Wilson, Hobart College freshman basketball ace, scored 48 points in a game for Geneva High against Jamestown High last year. But despite his efforts Geneva lost the game, 77-73, in overtime. Wilson is currently averaging 16 points per game for the Hobart varsity.

Five of Oregon's top six guards are either sophomores or freshmen. Capt. Ken Hunt is the lone player who will not return for the 1953 season.
